The Annual Staff is proud to dedicate the 1957 Tally-Ho to Mr. Clinton Hagemann and his very fine family. Mr. Hagemann has been Tallula's High School principal for the last three years and he has been very helpful to every Senior who has graduated and to the underclassmen. His understanding of human traits has helped him guide troubled students through their perilous days.

Mr. Hagemann's cheerfulness and humor and helpfulness has made him an inspiration to those who know him. The Staff sincerely hopes that Mr. Hagemann will stay with the school for we know he will be appreciated.

Class Prophecy

We're off on the prophetic road to see where it takes the class of 1957. Let's turn the calendar up to the year 1970, which seems like such a long time from now. Now, however, we are in the year 1970 and our thoughts tend to change a bit. We think now that we have so much to do in the coming year and we won't have time to do them all. The only reason we want time to pass quickly now is so payday will hurry and get here. "Those bills are stacking up and I have to wait two whole weeks for another pay check. What will I do?"

Let's take a journey about this good old country of ours and see if we can locate the boys and girls who graduated from Tallula High in that hectic year of 1957. We don't have to go very far to find Violetta Markert. She lives on a farm five miles north of Tallula with her husband, two boys, two girls and a dog. After Violetta graduated from high school she wanted to continue on to college but her plans didn't materialize. During the first year after graduation days, she met a young man in Springfield who very convincingly swept her off her feet. He was a farmer living east of Athens at the time. After about a year of courtship they were married. They rented a 320 acre farm north of Tallula and the next year they made a down payment on it and now live off the land.

Only one other member of the class of 1957 remained around Tallula. After graduation from high school Frank Meece went to work on a farm for about 6 months. Finding the job not to his liking and not being able to play pool when he wants to and is never late for work. Oh, yes, he took in a red-headed partner about 5 years ago and they spend most of their time at the pool tables. Frank has become so proficient with the cue that he has won several state titles and even advanced to the national finals one year. He has never married but is waiting for that one lady to come along who plays pool as well as he does Next we travel to Springfield to find Sudy Sinclair. She and her husband are living in an apartment with their 7 year old girl and 4 year old boy. Sudy is working at Bell during the day and her husband is working the night shift. This way they don't have to hire a baby sitter. Next year, when the little boy starts to school, her husband is going to get on the day shift so they will have more time together. She still comes back to Tallula quite often since she and her husband both have weekends off. Oh yes, they also have a parakeet named Sebastian.

Next on our list of graduates is David Leinberger. He entered college and received a degree in Social Sciences. Upon graduation he obtained a teaching position in northern Illinois in a rural community. After teaching for a year he was inducted into the army where he served for two years. After his discharge he went back to teaching. Now he has bought a 120 acre farm at the edge of town where he raises purebred livestock to supplement his teaching salary. Just two years ago he was married to a girl he met in service and they now have a little daughter.

Down in the southern part of the state we find Marilyn Cox. After receiving her diploma from TCHS she obtained a position at Franklin Life. At a coffee break one morning a young lad came in and introduced himself to everyone. When he came to Marilyn it was love at first sight. They had their first date that night and were together every night after that and were married 6 months later. Two years later he was transferred to the southern part of the state where Marilyn has devoted full time to housekeeping. They now have four children--three girls and a boy. They own their home, have two automobiles, an airplane and a yacht on the Mississippi.

The state of Ohio is our next stop. After Tom Dierks' promotion from high school he entered college. Upon completion of two years of college work he was offered a position with Standard Oil. The offer was too good for Tom to resist. He makes his home in Cleveland with only his dog as his companion. He's still a bachelor after swearing off the women in high school. However, he introduced me to a girl who has been keeping steady company with him. I was told there were no definite plans but I think she was doing the planning. Tom hadn't changed a bit and looked the same except for one thing; the pants he was buying now were about 6 inches larger around the waist than the ones he was buying in high school.

Upon graduation from high school Joyce Megredy entered college and majored in music. She completed four years and then obtained a degree deciding to enter the concert field. Walt Disney heard her one day and hired her to write and compose the music for the background to his cartoons. Walt liked her so much that after she was with him a year he promoted her to composing the music for the Mickey Mouse Club. Joyce didn't care too much for this life so she moved to Seattle, Washington where she organized the Seattle Philharmonic Orchestra. This is where we found her on our journeying. A young guest star appeared with her about a year ago and after meeting her he always wanted to come back. He did several times and finally came to stay. They were married last month.

One more place to visit on our trip and we will have covered all the members of the 1957 graduating class. To meet this man we have to go to Miami Beach, Florida. The day we found Leon Bateman he was sprawled on a deck chair on the beach taking a snooze. We hadn't seen him for years and in that span he had developed quite a span. He had put on about 70 pounds since we had last seen him. His orchestra was being featured at the Miami Beach Hotel. It seems that after he graduated from high school he entered college majoring in music. While in college he formed a small orchestra to play for dances in neighboring towns. After receiving his sheepskin he formed an orchestra which is now known throughout the world. He has a weekly television show sponsored by the Miniature Motor Company originating from the Flite Fuel Room of the Miami Beach Hotel.

After visiting all the graduates and finding them living a successful life we journey to our own home and pull a Rip Van Winkle.

Our student council members were Donald Leinberger, and Mick Pond. Mrs. Doris Hurt was our advisor. Pat Munson was a new member that year.

Our Sophomore year we elected Bill Owen President; Mick Pond Vice-President; and Donald Leinberger Secretary-Treasurer. The student council members were Karen Gibson and Mick Pond; and advisor again Mrs. Hurt. During this time we lost three members of our class; Judy Sorrells, Tom Barbee, and Richard Skeleton. For the crowning, Bob Stout was Master of Ceremonies. First to be introduced was the Queen of "56", Viola Koch and her escort Kenny Windle. Then came the Crown Bearer and Flower Girl, Tom Pettit and Jill Bandy. The attendants to the Queen and their escorts: Patty Dierks and Mickey Pond, Dorothy Zillion and David Leinberger, Karen Gibson and Jack Smith, Barbara Cox and Jim Masten, Joyce Megredy and David Babington, and Sudy Sinclair and Leon Bateman, Co-Captain of the Basketball team. Then for the climax the coronation of the 1957 Sweetheart Queen, Marilyn Cox. Her escort was Tom Dierks, Co-Captain of the Basketball team.

The "Sweetheart Dance" theme this year was "Stardust" using the colors blue and white. The ceiling was blue and white streamers that joined in the center to form a star. At one end of the gym was a large star behind the throne. On the mat was "Stardust". And a Bench with blue crepe paper with silver stars on it coming down from the basket to the bench. The stage was decorated as a blue sky with silver stars. Music was furnished by the "Stardusters".
