We're loyal to you, Tallula High,
We're orange and blue, Tallula High,
We'll back you to stand
Against the best in the land
For we know you have sand,
Tallula High! Rah! Rah!
So crack out that ball, Tallula High,
We're backing you all, Tallula High,
Our team is our fame protector,
On boys, for we expect a victory from you,
Tallula High.

Cha-he! Cha-ha! Cha-ha-ha-ha!
Cha-he! Cha-ha! Cha-ha-ha-ha!

Bring out that dear old flag of orange and blue.
Lead on your sons and daughters, fighting for you
Like men of old, on giants, placing reliance,
Shouting defiance, Osk-e-wa-wa'!

Amid the broad green plains that nourish our land,
For honest labor and for learning we stand,
And unto thee we pledge our heart and hand,
Dear Alma Mater, Tallula High.
Dedication
We, the senior Class of 1958, wish to dedicate this publication to Mrs. Thomas L. Price in hope of returning only a small portion of the invaluable assistance, patience, time, and happiness that she has so unselfishly given us in the past.

We sincerely hope that she will remain with the school and help the future classes by giving them the same helpful direction that has helped our struggling class so much.

Senior Prophecy

The young man glanced at his watch. The time was only 6:30 p.m. and he had almost an hour to wait so he bought a paper and sat down to read.

The man's name was Michael Pond and he was waiting for his rocket to take off. Mick is the United States Assistant Ambassador to Mars, a position to which he was just recently appointed. He has served several positions in the State Department following his graduation from Harvard ten years ago and is being hailed as one of the United States' brightest young men in the State Department. His appointment as Assistant Ambassador to Mars, one of the most coveted positions in the department, is proof enough of his ability.

As he opened the newspaper, the headlines read, "Automobile Successfully Run On Sunlight." The story went on to relate how Dr. Donald Leinberger, one of this country's leading scientists, has successfully used the rays from the sun as the only fuel to operate an automobile across the states.

Mickey wondered if this was the same Donald Leinberger who was in his class at Tallula High School and graduated with him in 1958. He read on in the article and discovered that it is the same Donald Leinberger. Following his graduation from Tallula High, Dr. Leinberger had attended the University of Illinois and then studied at the University of California, where he received his Doctor's degree. After receiving his degree, he returned to Illinois where he has done extensive work on using the sun's rays as a source of fuel.

Turning to the society page, Mick sees a picture and a caption under it which reads, "Senator's Wife Gives Another Party." Looking at the picture Mick sees that the Senator’s wife is none other than Karen Gibson, another member of the 1958 graduating class of Tallula High. Karen's husband is Senator from Illinois and since their arrival in Washington two years ago Karen has taken over the job of the late Elsa Maxwell in being the "hotess with the mostess" and recently broke Mike Todd's record when she gave a party at Yankee Stadium for all members of the United States Army.

A sudden noise causes Mick to look up from his paper. He observes that the commotion is being caused by reporters gathered around a man hurrying through the station. Mick catches a glimpse of the man's face and sees that it is William Smith, another graduate of the 1958 graduating class of Tallula. Mick hurries over to where the crowd is gathered around the man and is soon noticed by Smitty. The reporters are firing questions at Smitty regarding his recent capture of Public Enemy No. 2. Smitty tells the reporters that he will give them an interview in an hour and invites Mick to have a cup of coffee with him. Mick congratulates Smitty on being named to succeed J. Edgar Hoover as Chief of the FBI. Smitty tells him that he has been an FBI agent since he graduated from high school and worked his way up until he was appointed chief.
Mick tells Smitty that he was just reading in the paper about Donald Leinberger and Karen Gibson and was wondering what happened to the other member of the 1958 graduating class. The two say good-bye as it is time for Mick to catch his rocket.

As Mick settles down for the ride to Mars he thinks how in one night he has had information about three of his former classmates. The only one he has not heard about was Barbara Cox. He wonders what happened to her as he falls asleep.

He is awakened by the stewardess and is told there will be a two-hour layover on the moon. Mick decides to get something to eat and the first place that he comes to is a huge Motel with the sign reading "Barbara and Ben's Moon Motel and Restaurant." Mick goes in and is served a delicious dinner. He looks up and is surprised to see Barbara Cox as the hostess.

Barbara tells him that she and her husband have been running this vacation motel on the moon for five years. Mick tells her that tonight for the first time in many years he has met two of his former classmates and read about the other two in the newspaper.

As Mick continues on the trip to Mars he thinks back to that night so many years ago when Smitty, Barbara, Karen, Donald and he graduated from Tallula High School and wonders if any of them would have believed it if someone would have told them what they would be doing now, fifteen years later.

Mrs. Homer Tice

The Annual Staff wishes to thank Mrs. Homer Tice, who has greatly aided us while we were preparing our Annual. We are indebted to her for the energy she has expended on our project.

We were very fortunate in having such a capable person supervising the publishing of our Annual.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The executive body of our school is composed of seven legislators. They are: (seated) Carl Davis, Richard Stiltz, Floyd Stiltz, (standing) James Nemier, George Henderson; President, Mrs. Andrew Leinberger; Secretary, Mrs. Neva Dierks, and Clinton Hagemann, Principal.
The "Sweetheart Dance" theme for 1958 was "Let Me Call You Sweetheart", using the colors red and white. The ceiling was decorated with streamers, white on the ends and red in the middle. Around the gym ran a border of white fence, green vines, and red roses. On the stage was the throne, and a back-drop of a red heart on a white field with the words "Let Me Call You Sweetheart". Behind the throne ran a white pickett fence with roses entwined. Music was furnished by the "Teenagers".

For the coronation, Donald Leinberger was Master of Ceremonies. The Attendants to the Queen and their escorts were: (in order of entrance), Diane Gibson and Mike Bandy, Martha Lou Hill and Don Brown, Dorothy Zillion and Bill Smith, George Ann Henderson and David Babington, Patti Dierks and Pat Davis, and Barbara Cox and Jim Masten. The 1957 Queen, Marilyn Cox, and her escort, Tom Dierks, entered, followed by the flower girl and crown bearer, Laquetta Joy Belton, and Billy Dale Wesselman. Then came the climax to the coronation when the 1958 Queen, Karen Gibson, and her escort, Mick Pond, Captain of the basketball team, entered.

Refreshments were served after the coronation, with the Chapter Mothers serving at the refreshment tables.

Work

Let me but do my work from day to day,
In field or forest, at the desk or loom,
In roaring market place or tranquil room;
Let me but find it in my heart to say,
When vagrant wishes beckon me astray,
"This is my work; my blessing, not my doom.
Of all who live, I am the one by whom
This work can best be done in the right way."

Then shall I see it not too great, nor small,
To suit my spirit and to prove my powers;
Then shall I cheerful greet the laboring hours,
And cheerful turn, when the long shadows fall
At eventide, to play and love and rest,
Because I know for me my work is best.

--Henry van Dyke

Life

Let me live my life from year to year,
With forward face and unreluctant soul;
Not hurrying to, nor turning from, the goal;
Not mourning for the things that disappear
In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils; but with a whole
And happy heart, that pays its toll
To youth and age, and travels on with cheer.

So let the way wind up the hill or down,
O'er rough or smooth, the journey will be joy;
Still seeking what I sought when but a boy,
New friendships, high adventure, and a crown,
My heart will keep the courage of the quest,
And hope the road's last turn will be the best.
