On a warm, September day in 1959, sixty-four freshmen turned the key which opened the doors to Petersburg Harris High School. They found that this key, the key to knowledge and the future, would open many doors for them. Their sponsors--Mrs. Rebbe, Mr. Jones, and Mr. Worthington--helped to guide them through the year. They chose as their officers: Russ Curry, president; Norma Thomson, secretary; and Gene Dowell, Student Council Representative. The high point of the year was the freshman initiation, which helped the rest of the school get acquainted with these new students. They finished the year with an unforgettable party.

In nineteen-sixty, sixty sophomores turned the key to the second door of P.H.H.S. Their sophomore sponsors were: Mrs. Peterson, Mr. McKee, and Mr. Garner. They elected as their officers: Al Davis, president; Russ Eddings, vice-president; Martha Brass, secretary; Lee Milligan, treasurer. Student Council members were Bill Severns and Russell Curry. "The Time Machine," theme of the sophomore stunt, was the most important experience of the year. They also had a wonderful party, and Mrs. Peterson took the class to Springfield to see the movie, "Ben Hur."

Fifty-seven students unlocked the doors of opportunity of the junior year. Many important events, climaxed by the junior prom, took place this year. Mrs. Satorius, Miss Holloway, Mr. Landis, and Mr. Beveroth were their sponsors. Their elected leaders were: Russ Eddings, president; Janet Eades, vice-president; Norma Thomson, secretary-treasurer. Bill Severns, Gene Dowell, and Al Davis were the Student Council representatives.

In 1962, fifty-three seniors, now the key students of the school, returned to P.H.H.S. For their final and most important year they chose as their officers: Russ Eddings, president; Bill Severns, vice-president; Janet Eades, secretary; and Nancy McGary, treasurer. Jane Marcussen, Dick Cheaney, Norma Thomson, and Gene Dowell were elected as the Student Council members. The senior advisers were Mrs. Satorius, Mr. Landis, Mr. Haddick, and Mr. Bassana. As the year passed by, the seniors realized how many doors the key to knowledge and understanding had opened for them. The senior party, senior "Sphinx" Snapshot Assembly, publication of the "Sphinx," and the senior play were all important parts of the year. The seniors closed their final year as guests of the juniors at the Junior-Senior Prom. Class night was on May 24; Baccalaureate Services were held on May 26. The last door, the door to the future was Graduation on May 29.
I may not have the key for success, but I do have the key for failure: Try to please everybody.

Nancy McGary--Treasurer

SENIOR PLAY
MARCH 28 & 29

"SPRING FEVER"

Aunt Maude tries to sweet-talk Professor Bean into giving Howard a grade on his term paper so he will be able to graduate.
SYNOPSIS

TIME: about the first of June.

ACT I: 11:00 A.M.
ACT II: 3:30 P.M.
ACT III: 8:30 P.M.

Ed Burns, a chemistry student, has turned his room into a laboratory, where he experiments with a substitute for dynamite; Vic Lewis, an art student, sets up his dais and easel in the living room; Howard Brant, a senior, types frantically at a term paper on zoology. He will be graduated the next day if he can get it in on time. Lou Herron, a journalism student, breezes in every now and then to use the typewriter and--maybe--to see Ed. Anne Purcell, Howard's heart interest, has forgotten to reserve rooms at the hotel for her millionaire father and her mother. She can take care of mother in the dorm, and she persuades Howard to put her father up in his room. But when dignified Mr. Purcell arrives, Vic Lewis thinks he is the art model engaged to pose for a Russian Communist; the agency phoned and said the man objected to the idea, so Vic and Ed grab Mr. Purcell, gag him, strip him of most of his clothes, put a smock on him, tie him to a hatrack, and intimidate him with an explosion or two from Ed's laboratory. The mistake is discovered, but Mr. Purcell departs in great fury and withdraws his offer to present a new science building to the College. In the meantime, Howard's Aunt Maude, who has put him through college and who will send him to Europe when he has graduated, arrives unexpectedly. She is put in Howard's room, learns of his failure to pass his zoology course, and decides to pose as a famous zoologist to get on the good side of Professor Bean and persuade him to "Pass" Howard. Anne Purcell, aided by her chum Vivian (Vic's girl) and by Vic, posing as a doctor, puts on a deathbed scene in order to get her father to sign a paper promising the science building if Howard is allowed to graduate. But Vic's mustache comes off, and the deception is discovered. Howard has left with the paper, however, to hand it to President Dixon; but he decides he can't go through with the trick and comes back to pack his things. He will pull out, leaving his girl, his disappointed aunt, and his diploma behind. It's all fast and furious and funny--with loud explosions every now and then from Ed's stinkum stinktorum for good measure--and it ends entirely to everybody's satisfaction.
