History of Evangelical United Church

Since 1840 Evangelical Church has been a presence in the Highland community. In that year Rev. Joseph Rieger arrived to lead the German speaking people of the area in worship and sacrament. Rev. Rieger helped to found a number of churches in Missouri and Illinois. In that same year he was instrumental in calling a meeting which founded the Evangelical Synod.

The Basel Missionary Society of Switzerland sent 158 ministers to the "New World" to serve among the German-Swiss immigrants on the frontier. Rev. Joseph Rieger was one of the first two to begin this ministry. He did much to get the congregation organized and connected to the Evangelical Synod. In May, 1843, the congregation began the construction of its first building. This building was used as a place of worship and as a parochial school.

On Easter Sunday 1867, the Rev. John Metelmann, the thirteenth pastor of the congregation, began his pastorate and remained for twelve years. Following him was the Rev. R. Rentschler, who served eight years. During Rentschler's term, many of the church organizations had their beginnings. One was the church choir, another was the Ladies Aid Society, now called the Women's Guild. This group of women realized that a home for the aged should become a reality. From this vision and through their efforts materialized the Highland Home. The membership of the church also increased, and in 1878, a second church building was erected on the same site as the first (church).

Due to the efforts and leadership of Rev. C.E. Miche, who assumed the pastorate in 1916, plans were made in 1920 to remodel the church building and erect a Sunday School addition. Ground was broken on April 13, 1921, and the remodeled structure was dedicated to the service of God on November 6, 1921.

In 1929, the church became a member of the Evangelical Synod of North America.

On October 1, 1931, the Rev. Otto C. Bassler became the pastor, and proved to be an excellent successor. Under his pastorate, membership continued to increase and church activities expanded. Both Rev. and Mrs. Bassler were active in youth work, organizing the Malico and Lawolo Fellowships and the Joy Club. Summer daily Vacation Bible School was started at this time.

In 1934, the Evangelical Synod of North America and the Reformed Church in the U.S. entered into a merger and became the Evangelical and Reformed Church, which made the church part of a larger body. Again, the name of the Church was changed and it became known as the "E & R" Church.

Because of the increased membership, plans were made in 1934 to further enlarge the building. A large addition on the east side of the building was then erected. This wing contained a chapel, Sunday School rooms, and a large basement dining hall.

Dedication of the church addition was held on May 5, 1935.

It was during Rev. Bassler's pastorate that the congregation celebrated the centennial of the church on October 27th to November 3, 1940.

After a long courtship, the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches became the United Church of Christ in the summer of 1957.

In August 1957, Pastor Victor H. Schoen became the church's new pastor. Pastor Schoen was involved in many church and community activities. With the efforts of many members of the congregation and the untiring guidance of Pastor Schoen, a new building was erected at 2520 Poplar St. on a seven acre site. The cornerstone laying services were held on September 16, 1962, and the dedication services on July 28, 1963. The church had a seating capacity of 550, with 17 classrooms and a large fellowship hall.

On February 23, 1975, a call was extended to Rev. Dr. Kenneth O. Mesle to become the senior pastor. Under Dr. Mesle's and a group of church members' leadership, the Faith Countryside Homes was started. A nursing home and 20 acres of adjacent land were purchased. The FCH apartment complex was built in 1981-1983, consisting of 84 apartments and a Senior Citizen's Social Center.

In February, 1987, the Rev. Keith Karau became the senior pastor. He served the congregation until September of 1994. In January, 1990, another "branch" of EVUCC (Wee Care Day Care) became operational. The program was designed for families whose parents work and require an alternative care for their young children.

The Rev. Susan Sickelka became the associate pastor of Evangelical Church in 1989, and in October, 1999, celebrated her 10th anniversary.

In 1966, the Rev. Dr. Thomas G. Drewer became the 27th senior citizen pastor of the congregation. Today the Evangelical United Church of Christ of Highland, Illinois, looks forward to celebrating its 160th Anniversary in the year 2000.
