SENIOR CLASS
Highland High School
Highland, Illinois
FOREWORD

Many fruitful attempts have been made to improve the Highland High School. This year a Code of Ethics was composed in order to improve school morale. The fourteenth volume of the Iris is issued by the senior class of 1934 with the hope that it will be remembered as the last annual of the "old red school house".
DEDICATION

To this progressive community which has made possible the furtherance of education through the provision for a new school, we, the class of 1934, dedicate this fourteenth volume of the Iris.

ADMINISTRATION
The members of the Board of Education have willingly given their time and services to the school. Due to their interest in the students, the standing of the Highland High School is constantly being raised.

Through their efforts and the cooperation of the public, it has been made possible for Highland to have a new school, so that the students in years to come will have the advantage that those of other cities enjoy.

Last February the student body was grieved at the sudden death of John Tschannen, an active member of the Board.

The students of the Highland High School deeply appreciate the work of the board, especially during the past year.
During the past few years several additions have been made to our faculty. It now consists of thirteen teachers who are always willing to help. They do their best to make the students become good citizens.

Because of the recent improvements in the faculty, we are certain that the future graduates from Highland High School shall be more fit to overcome the difficulties of life.

The burdens of the faculty are lightened by the assistance of Miss Mueller, the school secretary.

More and more do our appreciation and understanding of our superintendent and class sponsor increase. We have tried to live up to the ideals he has set up for us. Whether we have succeeded or failed, our experience has been profitable.

As a true citizen he has done much for our school and community. This year he took an active part in the campaign to secure a new school building for Highland. Through his influence our scholastic standing has been raised until we have been accredited by the North Central Association, the highest accrediting association in the United States.
Within the shelter of the brick walls of the Highland School, we have spent the happiest hours of our lives. Many were the trials and tribulations, but as we come to the end of our school days we realize what they have meant to us.

For forty years, the brick structure has seen children come and go from its doors. During this time the building has amply served its purpose. Next year it is to be replaced by a modern, combined grade and high school.

We hope that the succeeding classes will profit by the opportunities to be offered by the new school.

We are proud to be the last graduates from this aged school building.
NECESSITIES OF YOUTH

Will there be a place in the world for us after we graduate? Have we acquired the attributes to make a success of some chosen career?

You may ask, "Just what are the necessary qualities which assure us of success in 1934?" It can safely be said they are not the same as our fathers and mothers used as their working slogans. There must be an entirely new set of ideas, ideals and attitudes.

The virtues they taught us are still valuable if used intelligently, but they are no longer sufficient. We must do far more. We can no longer follow the old maxim, "Be sure you are right; then go ahead."

Nobody can be sure what is right in this modern world. We must take chances; we must make our own decisions; if they are not right, we must pay the penalty.

It is true we are not all born equal. Success is assured for some before they exercise their own efforts. We sincerely hope democracy will be achieved for later graduates. It will be one of our struggles to help effect this desired condition.

Our chief concern is with the problems at hand. We must have the faith in ourselves to overcome them. We must believe we possess the attributes for success and use them.
The school is an extension of the home. The child's school home shows what the community has planned for his welfare.

A most important event of the past school year was the planning by our community of a new school plant which will be in harmony with the progress which Highland has always shown. A combined grade and high school is to be constructed at an estimated cost of $194,000. Of this sum approximately $50,000 is given to our community in the form of a grant by the national government. A site which was formerly a part of the Highland golf course was selected by the people as the location for the new school. This location will eliminate the noise of the downtown business district which the students have contended with in the past. The structure will be beautified by the near-by Sharpshooters' park and the towering trees of Lindenthal Avenue.

A school building is as definitely a part of an inspiring city plan as the wide avenues, parks, beautiful residences, shrubbery, and flowers. Order, quiet, beauty, good equipment, play space, work rooms, safety, fresh air, abundant light, and cleanliness are as important for the school home as for the parental home. Good homes, good schools, well-ordered cities are the most important contribution of American civilization to the health and character of man.

The benefits of this project will be seen in years to come. The community of Highland is to be congratulated for its planning for the future.
For twenty-one years Mr. Mueller has faithfully fulfilled his position as janitor in our school. Since he is resigning this spring, we know of no other way to show our honor and respect than to dedicate this page to him.

Mr. Mueller was born in Obeer Kulm, Kanton Aargau, Switzerland, on July 30, 1855. At the age of nine years, he journeyed with the rest of his family to America, where they settled in Deck's Prairie, Illinois. In a few years they moved to Highland, where Mr. Mueller became employed as a milk distributor. It was thus that he met Elizabeth Siegrist, and, after a three year romance, she became his wife. They moved to a farm one-half mile south of Highland. After thirty-two years of farming, Mr. Mueller obtained the position of janitor at the Highland Public School. He then built a comfortable home on the edge of Highland, where he still resides.

May the remainder of his life be a long and happy one!

In 1930, thirty ambitious, fun-loving students entered Highland High School. As freshmen we were not very studious and regarded high school more as a happy lark than anything else. For our officers we elected Grace Mueller, President; Stuart Drum, Vice-president; Sumner Michael, Secretary; and Wallace Stoecklin, Treasurer. Miss Tschan nen and Miss Mueller were chosen as our sponsors. At the beginning of the year the sophomores entertained us at a "nut" party, and in return we gave them a peanut euchre. It was our first attempt at any school entertainment and proved successful. Mr. Lewis Ogilvie was our superintendent this year and was well liked by everyone.

We came back for our second year with a more serious purpose. We felt more important now that we were no longer the youngest in school. This year there were thirty-one of us. Miss Swisegood was chosen as sponsor. The following were our officers: Mae Volgt, President; Sumner Michael, Vice-president; Raymond Schneider, Secretary; and Paul Tschan nen, Treasurer. A wiener roast at Lindendale Park was our only social event this year. Due to rain most of the time was spent under the large pavilion playing games. This year Mr. Ewing came to us as our new superintendent and has faithfully served us since that time.

In our third year we embarked on the bigger, more serious activities of our school life. We gave a play entitled "Where's My Money?" the proceeds of which were used for our Junior-Senior Banquet. This was held in the Kinne Building and was followed by a dance which was held in the high school assembly. During this year our class officers were Stuart Drum, President; Wallace Stoecklin, Vice-president; Sumner Michael, Secretary; and Marion Murray, Treasurer. Our sponsors were Miss Foster and Mr. Raffaiele. Our enrollment had decreased to twenty-four.

This year is our most interesting and perhaps hardest. Our total enrollment is now thirty-five. With the aid of the other students we are publishing the Square News every two weeks in the local newspapers and are putting forth our greatest effort to make this Iris a success.

Our future depends now entirely upon ourselves. Our years in Highland High have prepared and helped us in deciding this future. As we look back on our happy days in the old brick building, it is with regret that we are soon to bring them to close.
When the present juniors were freshmen, there were forty-eight members. We elected the following officers: Linette Meloy, President; Harry Zeller, Vice President; Evelyn Jenny, Secretary; and Lu Verne Aldridge, Treasurer.

Our class colors are blue and white, our flower, the rose. Our motto is, "We'll be comrades to the end." During the course of the year, the freshmen had one party, which was held at the home of Miss Mabel Wenger, the sponsor.

Thirty-seven of the forty-eight freshmen came back the second year. The following people held office: Lu Verne Aldridge, President; Harry Zeller, Vice-president; Russell Stocker, Secretary-treasurer. The sophomores were well represented in all the school activities during the whole term. Miss Mabel Wenger and Mr. Herrmeyer served as the sponsors.

There are thirty-six members of the junior class. We elected Harry Zeller, President; Pauline Schmidt, Vice-president; and Verna Wehrle, Secretary-treasurer. The Lost and Found Department was started by the junior class, and it proved very successful. On October 1, the juniors enjoyed a hike to the waterworks. The juniors sponsored and made a big success of a box social, and band concert. The class play was given on December 15. It was very successful, and a party was given after the play by Miss Drew, our sponsor. On February 23, the juniors sponsored an all-high school kid party. Nearly everyone present was in costume. Refreshments were sold by the juniors throughout the evening, while Eddie Everett's Orchestra furnished music for the dancing. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the party.

The juniors have high hopes in adding to the credit of Highland High during their senior year.
When we, the freshmen of 1932, tripped up the stairs to present ourselves for membership in the H. H. S., we had two fears: first, that we would not be appreciated; and, second, that some upper classmen would suggest initiation. But contrary to our expectations, we were welcomed by the instructors with warm hospitality and our initiation was never mentioned.

Our freshmen class, consisting of forty-two members, had Miss Drew and Mr. Geuther as sponsors. The class officers were as follows:

Roger Shields, President; Eldo Duft, Vice-president; Bernell Bircher, Secretary; Alfred Dubach, Treasurer.

One of our first activities was a hike to Sam Hug's lake for a wiener roast. Although it rained we had an enjoyable time roasting wiener's and drinking cocoa.

When we came back to school after the summer vacation, we felt proud, for we were no longer freshmen. We were sophomores, and we were not as shy as we had been before. We found that some of our class-mates had not come back, but several new members had joined us. At the present time there are thirty-six of us.

Our class colors are green and white. Our class flower is the iris, and our motto is "We will strive with things impossible, yea, get the better of them."

Our class sponsor this year is Miss Suess. Our class officers are Virgil Iberg, President; Eldo Duft, Vice-president; Minette Fowler, Secretary-Treasurer.

It is our wish that we will all meet again next year, seriously aware of why we are here, that we may be a credit to Highland High.

At the opening of the school year the freshman class officers were chosen. Dorothy Ellen Draper was elected President; Clinton Rogier, Vice-president; and Floyd Gall, Secretary-treasurer.

Soon after school started, we hiked to Klaus's lake where we enjoyed a wiener roast. There were many newcomers in our class, and this outing offered an opportunity for everyone to get acquainted.

Our next social event was a Christmas dance which we gave for the entire high school shortly before the holidays. Refreshments were sold, and dance music was furnished by Eddie Everett's orchestra. The party was quite a success considering that it was our first attempt to entertain the school.

On January seventh, the student body was shocked and grieved to learn of the death of our Secretary-treasurer, Floyd Gall. His position was filled by John Zobrist for the remainder of the year.

In March the spring fever got the best of us, so we had to get rid of it by giving another party. This time only freshmen were invited. We came masked to the Home Economics rooms where we enjoyed a pot luck supper. After several toasts, we went to the grade school hall and danced until ten o'clock.

The freshmen intend to settle down now and become better students of Highland High.
FLOYD ALBERT GALL

Floyd Albert Gall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gall, was born May 22, 1919, near Pierron, Illinois. Later the family moved to a farm east of Grantfork. There he attended grade school at the Fairview school. He was a bright student and won the scholarship given by that school.

In September of 1933, he started his high school days as a freshman in Highland High School. He was liked by everyone who knew him and was elected secretary-treasurer of his class. Floyd was very attentive and took an active part in all the high school activities. On January fourth he felt ill in school, but insisted on staying the rest of the day.

Anxious not to miss school, he came back the next day. At noon the teachers persuaded him to go home.

On Sunday, January seventh, he passed away from the disease of spinal-meningitis. Funeral services were held at the Highland City Cemetery, Tuesday, January ninth. His friends and schoolmates were permitted to leave school in order to attend the funeral. After the funeral a memorial service was held in the high school assembly.

Floyd is greatly missed by all and will always be remembered as one who tried to do his best in everything in which he participated.
ACTIVITIES

FRONT ROW: Drum, Streiff, Michael, Kellbach, Alldridge, Hochuli, Murray.

The record for the Highland High School football squad for 1933 was two victories, three defeats and one tie game. The dates and scores of the games are as follows:

Sept. 23 Madison 16 Highland 0
Sept. 30 Woodriver 25 Highland 0
Oct. 14 Nashville 7 Highland 7
Oct. 21 Marquette 12 Highland 0
(game called in second quarter)

Nov. 4 Highland 65 Duplo 0
Nov. 11 Highland 7 Carlyle 6

Tschannen, the captain, proved a reliable guard and tackle. Duft, the captain elect, was one of the best tacklers. We appreciate Sackett’s fine guarding. Drum played an excellent game at end until he broke his hand. Murray showed a lot of grit in holding down the center position. Alch played a good game at end. Allbridge’s punting and ball carrying proved great ground gainer. Hochuli’s speed made him a dangerous blocker. Michael should be one of the consistent ball-carriers in the future. Streiff was excellent in back-field work. We missed Kellbach’s service in several games because of knee injuries. Sautter and Shields strengthened the ends considerably. Kuhner’s and Dubach’s consistent line work will be an asset in coming seasons. Kleiner was a small but nervy player.

For the last two seasons our football squad has been coached by Mr. Davis. He came to us from Millikin University, where he had reached great heights as a football player. He sets an excellent example for all athletes and is a great friend of all the students.

During the past season our basketball team was coached by Mr. White. He won the confidence of all the athletes; but even with such a good prevailing spirit it was impossible to produce a winning team from boys who were compelled to practice on an outdoor court. Under these circumstances Mr. White may be complimented on his willingness and patience to stand by his team.

Out of seven games in which Highland played, we won three. Because we had no gymnasium all our games were played away from home.

On November 17 we played Venice. We won by a 29-16 score. Our next game was with Mulberry Grove and we were defeated 21-11. By a score of 23-12, we won from St. Jacob.

The game with Wood River was a non-conference game ending with a score of 43-22 against Highland. In the game with St. Paul we defeated them 33-18. During the first half of the game with Pocahontas we held them from doing much scoring; but at the end of the game we were badly defeated. The last and most exciting game of the season ended in a 29-28 victory for Troy.

Highland entered the district tournament at Edwardsville. The first game was played with Brighton. It was a close game throughout. We finally won by a 17-16 score. Our next opponent was Wood River. After the first quarter we weakened and the game turned out to be a victory for Wood River. Paul Earnhart was captain of our team during the tournament.

For the first time in many years a schedule of intramural sports was carried out for the boys of Highland High School. Bowling and basketball were offered to boys this year.

Four teams made up the bowling league. Each team consisted of five bowlers. The Night Owls won the league with 15 victories and 12 defeats. The individual averages were as follows: Night Owls—Gruenenfelder, 146; Hochull, 136; Ewing, 152; P. Tschannen, 118; Miller, 103. Celts—M. Michael, 135; Earnhart, 142; S. Michael, 120; Schoeck, 118; White, 147. All Stars—Sackett, 156; Streiff, 144; Stocker, 112; Herrmeyer, 117; Raffaele, 182. Perfectos—Keilbach, 144; L. Isert, 122; Beck, 95; Davis, 156; Murray, 123.

Many boys participated in intramural basketball. The basketball league consisted of four teams: Aich’s, Stoecklin’s, Earnhart’s, and F. F. A.’s. Aich’s team won the classic with five victories and one defeat. The following boys participated in the sport: Aich’s—Dubach, Pfeiffer, Lang, Bircher, and Aich; Stoecklin’s—Siever, L. Isert, Shields, Schuepbach, Streiff, and Stoecklin; Earnhart’s—C. Isert, F. Tschannen, Kuhner, Duft, Zobrist, Keilbach, and Earnhart; F. F. A.’s—Schmidt, Neudecker, Hochull, M. Gentry, and W. Gentry.

Intramural sports furnish an opportunity for all high school boys to compete in athletic events. Competition is not so great in intramural sports, and everyone has a chance to play on some team. The boys of Highland High School hope that this policy will be continued in the future.

TRACK IN 1933

Highland entered in two meets last year, the conference (National Trail) meet, held here the last week in April, and the District meet held in Granite City. The schools entered in the conference meet made the following scores: Livingston, 44; Highland, 39; Troy, 13; Mulberry Grove, 14; and Venice 8.

Three records were broken and one was tied. Siever of Highland threw the javelin 149 feet 9 inches. Neudecker of Highland ran the quarter mile in 55.2 seconds. Galob and Kamenecky of Livingston tied for first in the high-jump with leaps of 5 feet 6½ inches. The mile record was tied by Decrevel of Highland and Taylor of Mulberry Grove. Both ran it in 5 minutes. Highland won the 880 relay with Neudecker, Siever, Keilbach, and Alldridge running. Three Highland men were high in individual points, Alldridge and Neudecker having twelve points apiece and Siever ten.

The District meet was held in a downpour of rain. Alldridge placed in the 220 yard dash.
ATHLETICS AND SCHOOL SPIRIT

The development of school spirit is thought to be closely related to physical education and especially to athletics. School spirit should be guided carefully by the teachers and by the administrative head of the school. The team should want to win. There should be a spirit of sincerity in this desire on the part of every member of the team and student body. Too frequently school spirit takes the form of rowdism. Square dealing and fair play must be instilled in every pupil.

Physical education can be made to play an important part in the development of school citizenship. A good school citizen is highly cooperative, helpful and useful, enthusiastic with regard to the best welfare of the school, a good sportsman, trustworthy, self-sacrificing, and loyal to the school’s ideals and traditions.

One trouble today, close observers tell us, is that some school-boys and college men shrink from physical contests, partly because they wish to avoid being hurt, partly because they cannot endure the thought of defeat. Well administered athletic contests seldom hurt any participant very much; on the contrary, they can teach habits of self-preservation. As for the thought of defeat, it really matters not at all who wins or loses a game or a meet, provided he does his best and loses or wins like a sportsman. So far as we are aware, there is no record to the effect that Washington or Lincoln or Roosevelt or Wilson shrank from athletic competition. Washington was a jumper and a sprinter of parts. Lincoln could jump and split rails with the next man. Roosevelt injured his sight in a boxing bout, and played tennis long and well. Wilson coached football. It is true that we cannot say these men were great leaders because they had been athletes. But it is equally true that they displayed in their public careers some of the qualities of initiative, perseverance, and concentration that gave them athletic success. These qualities became ingrained through their habituating exercise. So long as playing to win like a sportsman is encouraged among American youth, it will contribute a salutary ingredient to the national life.

—The Illinois High School Athlete.
The Girl's Athletic Association was introduced in our school two years ago and has proved to be very popular. Under the leadership of Miss Frances Peterson, who has been ably assisted by the Misses Welch and Duginger, the association has progressed rapidly. We elected Grace Mueller as our president; Betty Beckmann, vice-president; and Arline Schmidt, secretary-treasurer.

Each month a meeting is held in the band hall. After the business has been transacted, the meeting is turned over to the entertainment committee who provide amusement and refreshments.

In order to become an official member of the G. A. A. each girl has to earn one hundred points. These points may be earned by keeping health rules, having examinations made by doctors, participating in unorganized activities, and by accomplishment in various sports and stunts. Baseball, horse-shoe, hiking, roller skating, ping-pong, and volleyball were offered. If any girl participates in at least three of these activities for one hour each, every week, she is excused from the regular gymnasium class. After the girls have earned their one hundred points, they are initiated by the old members. In January, twelve girls were initiated into the G. A. A. Each one was compelled to come to school dressed as she was instructed. They had to walk up all stairs backwards, talk in a whisper all day, and go through certain specified actions whenever they met an old member. Each time they failed to do any of the above things they received a black mark. After school they had to work off these black marks by scrubbing the downstairs floor with tooth brushes. That night the formal initiation was held and the new members were welcomed into the group.
The purposes of the F. F. A. organization are as follows:

1. To promote vocational education in agriculture in the public schools of the U. S.
2. To create more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations.
3. To create and mature a love of country life.
4. To encourage recreational and educational activities for students in vocational agriculture.
5. To promote thrift.
6. To encourage cooperative effort among students of vocational agriculture.
7. To strengthen the confidence of the farm boy in himself and his work.
8. To promote scholarship among students of vocational agriculture.
9. To develop rural leadership.

The officers are as follows: Lester Schoeck, President; Glenn Baumann, Vice-president; Anthony Neudecker, Secretary; and Elmer Hochuli, Treasurer. Mr. Geuther is their capable advisor.

The F. F. A. has been very active during the past year. Last August some of the F. F. A. boys attended the World’s Fair in Chicago. The trip proved to be educational and at the same time, entertaining. They also inspected farms near Highland. The class entered judging contests the last two years. At these contests they succeeded in winning several ribbons. On a field trip to St. Louis they visited a Feed Mill Federal Loan Bank and the Globe Democrat Building. A business meeting is held every month.

TOP ROW: Dameron, W. Gentry, W. LeDuc, G. Baumann, Schmidt, Fochner, Schoeck, Stoecklin, Goodson.
SECOND ROW: Casper, Rindeler, Bargatzke, M. Gentry, H. Baumann, Neudecker, Hochuli, Schultz, Mr. Geuther.
FIRST ROW: Voruz, Kleiner, Mewes, Gall, Donnelly, Ambuehl, Beck, Stocker.

A large percentage of our students have taken an active part in our Glee Clubs this year. Over fifty voices participated in the Boys', Girls', and Mixed Choruses. Through the interest and cooperation of these students, our high school was able to furnish musical entertainments at various social events throughout the year.

Together the Glee Clubs and the Band have sponsored Vesper Services each month at our churches. We have also presented musical numbers at the Chamber of Commerce, Woman's Club, and the Parent-Teacher's Association.

At a contest held at Carlyle on March 21, we were proud to have our Glee Clubs place second. Wilmina Cohlmeier, soprano; Marion Alch, tenor; and Lu Verne Aldridge, baritone, participated in the solo contests. The returns of the contest as a whole, were Mascoutah, first, with a score of twenty-five; Highland, second, with a score of twenty-three and one-half; and Nashville, third, with a score of twelve and one-half.

The Glee Clubs presented the operetta, "The Pirate's Daughter" on May 11.

Miss Peterson, our director, came to us from Augustana College at Rock Island. She won immediately the admiration and cooperation of all the students. Through her efforts our Glee Clubs have entered more activities than any previous year. We appreciate her loyalty.
The Highland Public school Band was organized in 1931. It has progressed under the direction of Mr. George Raffaella and through the cooperation of the band members and our community.

After three years of exceptionally hard work, the band has achieved high honors. On April 6, the Highland Public School Band entered the district contest at Belleville. The band registered in class C, which consists of bands from high schools with an enrollment of less than five hundred students. Highland and Roadhouse tied for first place, and Mulberry Grove placed second.

Due to its victory in the district contest, the band went to the state contest, which was held at Urbana on April 26, 27, and 28. Thirteen other bands competed in class C. The bands were rated in three divisions. The five best bands were equally recognized as the winners of the contest. The next five best bands were placed in the second division. Highland was one of the five second best bands. The remaining bands ranked in the third division.

The district contest for instrumental solos was held at Belleville on March 24. Highland had six representatives at the contest: Sumner Michael and Marion Alch from the high school, and Aileen Huth, Dwight Lory, Robert Brockmeier, and Robert Koch from the grade school. Sumner tied with several other contestants for first place in first division, and Marion was first in the second division. All of the four grade students ranked either first or second in their particular instrumental division.

As a result of this contest Sumner Michael went to the State contest at Urbana on April 26. Twenty-five contestants entered in the trumpet solo contest. Sumner ranked as one of the ten best soloists. Because of his splendid accomplishment, Sumner will compete in the National contest, which is to be held at Des Moines, Iowa in May.

Mr. Raffaella is to be congratulated for directing and training a band which has achieved such high honors in three years’ time.

Elbert Hastings  Russell Stocker

On December 15, the junior class play, under the direction of Miss Helen Drew, was successfully presented at the Opera House. The well-chosen cast worked diligently with Miss Drew, who spent many tedious hours guiding the play. The full house which witnessed the play agreed that it was a success.

The play takes place on a certain spring morning at the present time. The entire town of Fern Lawn gasps to see a pretty, nineteen year old, overall-clad girl arrive in town and take charge of a filling station. In a very short time she is threatened with being driven out of town. Jimmy Clark is assigned the dismaying task of getting rid of her. Jimmy has hard luck and the girl at the filling station enjoys herself by giving the town something to talk about. At the same time that Jimmy is falling in love with the girl, two other love affairs develop. Elsie Crowder and Elbert Hastings have an exciting romance, and Bud Flannigan, the chauffeur, and Angelina Knoop try hard to carry on one, but they are everlastingly interrupted by Angelina's little sister, Minnie. The strange girl at the filling station proves to Patricia Grayson, the governor's daughter, and all ends well.
On Friday, May 25, "A Full House", was presented by the senior class, at the Opera House, before a large audience. Mr. Ewing coached the play. The cast is as follows:

Parks ........................... Stuart Drum
Susie ................................ Dorothy Kleiner
Ottily Howell .................... Amanda Abert
Miss Winnecker ................... Betty Beckmann
Daphne Charters ................. Grace Mueller
Nicholas King ..................... Raymond Schneider
Ned Pembroke, Jr. ................ Marlon Murray
George Howell .................... Lloyd Streiff
Dougherty ........................ Lester Schock
Jim Mooney ........................ Harold Von Rohr
Clancy ............................ Kenneth Casper
Mrs. Fleming ........................ Mae Volgt
Vera Vernon ........................ Arline Schmidt
Mrs. Pembroke ........................ Theda Gnaegy

Ottily Howell, a bride of one day, is left alone with Parks, the English servant, and Susie, the dumb maid, while her husband, George, is off on a business trip. Miss Winnecker, her aunt, and Daphne, her sister, come to stay with her as soon as they learn of George’s absence. The aunt is very suspicious of George, and her suspicions increase when Ottily suddenly finds Mrs. Pembroke’s stolen jewels in a grip which is apparently her husband’s. In the meantime, Ned Pembroke comes to the house to see George about business. He is in love with Daphne, and they carry on many love scenes behind the back of Daphne’s aunt. Nicholas King, the real thief of the jewels, had met George on the train and accidentally switched grips with him. He came to the house to get his grip only to find his jewels gone. He stays around the house, disguising as a detective to those who do not know him. Susie, being too ignorant to realize what he was doing, helps him out because he promised to find her a way home to Sioux City.

Three policemen are called to the part- ment and do not let anyone leave. When Mrs. Fleming, the owner of the apartment, returns from her trip to Europe, she orders everyone out of her home, but they do not leave. She becomes very angry until the whole matter is straightened out. Vera Vernon, a show girl, comes in to get back the letters which Ned had written to her, and which he had sent George, as a lawyer, to get back for him. She tells Ottily and Daphne of the promises George and Ned made to her, and they both declare they are through with the men. However, Mrs. Pembroke soon comes for her jewels, and gives Nicholas King the reward. Then they explain everything, and all are reconciled.
The Mixed Glee Clubs directed by Miss Peterson presented the operetta, "The Pirate's Daughter," at the Opera House on May 11. The High School Orchestra furnished the musical accompaniment. The cast and chorus were well suited to their parts and gave a splendid performance. The cast was as follows:

Mrs. Schuyler .......................... Allegra Modisett
Mrs. Van der Meer ....................... Betty Beckmann
Elsie ........................................ Wilmina Cohmeyer
Willberg ................................. Dean Deerevel
Peter ......................................... Merle Miller
Jacqueline ................................. Frederica Frey
Mr. La Rue ................................ Lu Verne Aldridge
Hans ......................................... Thomas Winter
Katrinka ..................................... Theda Gnaegy
Maliniat Singh ............................ Marion Murray
Mr. Van der Meer ......................... Marion Aeb
Schmidt ..................................... Kenneth Casper
Mate ........................................... Clyde Schuepbach
Dub ............................................. Glenn Hartlieb
Gub ............................................. L. J. Kempff
Mitte .......................................... Linette Meloy
Fritzi .......................................... Grace Mueller
Gretchen ..................................... Pauline Schmidt

A house party is given by Mr. and Mrs. Van der Meer at their estate on the Hudson. A necromancer from India who is engaged by the hostess, puts the guests to sleep, and they dream themselves back in Holland three hundred years before. The next act is built around the character of Jacquelin, a flirtatious girl who was found unconscious on the beach one day by the Burgomaster and taken in his home. The first scene opens with Burgomaster's birthday celebration. A sailor, Schmidt, warns the Burgomaster and Peter, Prefect of Police, that a pirate ship commanded by the notorious Captain La Rue, had anchored in the harbor the night before. Burgomaster and Peter plan a clever trap for the pirates. Jacqueline and Willberg, the Burgomaster's secretary, traitorously assist the pirates, who break in the Burgomaster's house. They carry off a chest supposed to contain the town funds, but find the Burgomaster inside. The police then capture the pirates. Jacqueline is found to be the Pirate Chief's daughter. The pirates go free on the condition that they never return to Holland. A happy love scene is depicted by Elsie and Peter; another, by Hans and Katrinka, the servants. Three pirate spies, Mate, Dub and Gub, develop a very comic situation around the name of the pirate flag known as the "Jolly Roger." In Act III the necromancer removes his spell, and all are revealed in their true characters.
CLASS HISTORY OF 1933

It is hard to believe that just five years ago we were little Freshies. Our colors were green and white; our flower, lily-of-the-valley; and our motto, “Being not seeming; doing not dreaming,” which I hope we have followed. The class officers were: Edith Kamm, president; Wesley Clanton, vice-president; Mort Tibbetts, secretary; Louis Appel, treasurer. Miss Spencer and Miss Foster were our sponsors during that first year of high school.

We found out what pleasant times could be had in this new school life when the sophomores invited us to a Hallowe’en party. The following March we had a St. Patrick’s party.

Our sophomore year we initiated the freshies to social life with a nut party, and they retaliated with a peanut euchre. We also had a picnic at Mounce’s. Miss Fischer guided us through our second year. Our class-officers were: Howard Siever, president; Delmar Hug, vice-president; Anthony Neudecker, secretary; Hugo Rogier, treasurer.

Our third year we were joined by many out-of-town students. The juniors put on a class play, “Peach Tree Road”, which was a big success. From the financial reward we were able to give the annual social affair, the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held at the Masonic Temple. That year our class officers were: Howard Siever, president; Wesley Clanton, vice-president; Hugo Rogier, secretary-treasurer. Our advisors were Miss Spencer and Miss Suess.

Many regretted to see the fourth year of high school roll around. Our officers were: Delmar Hug, president; Hugh Rogier, vice-president; Elsie Trost, secretary; Wilson Boulanger, treasurer. Our advisors were Miss Spencer, Miss Suess and Mr. White. Although we were unable to publish an Iris because of financial conditions we were able to present the senior class play “Winners All.”

Allegra—Why should I smile?

Irma—Watching and waiting.

Betty—Contented.

Owen—Give me a cigar.

Eunice—So shy!

Wilmina—Smile at the birdie!

Ferndale—Why the frown?

Mae—Put on your old gray bonnet!
The "mighty squad" ready for action.

Surely they aren't waiting for school time.

The "book worms".

The rendezvous.

Young and innocent.

The “Square News” was published during the past school year in order to give the people of Highland up-to-date knowledge on the school activities of Highland Public school. The “Square News” appeared bi-weekly in both the local newspapers. The staff worked harmoniously throughout the year, and their fellow-students appreciate their sincere efforts.

IRIS STAFF

An editorial cabinet consisting of chairman Paul Tschannen, Grace Mueller, Arlene Schmidt, Wilmina Cohnmeyer, and Wallace Stoecklin, replaced the Iris staff editors and business managers of previous years. With the cooperation of all the Iris staff, the submitting of the 1934 annual became an enjoyable task. We hope that our year book is of benefit and interest to all.

PAGE FORTY ONE
Last December two students from each class were elected to contribute a code for the high school students. The Code of Ethics was formulated in order to improve the moral standing of the pupils of Highland High. The code consisted of six pledges, which were not difficult for a student, with good intentions, to uphold. The students who desired to do so promised to be loyal adherents of the code; and in very few instances was the promise broken. The Better Highland High School Code has been one of the many features that made the 1933-34 year of school a successful one. The code follows:

I, as a loyal student of Highland High School, pledge myself to abide by the following code:

1—I will be more cooperative in all I do in classroom, class meeting and assembly.

2—I will increase my enthusiasm in support of school activities.

3—I will be regular in my attendance.

4—I will be honest.

5—I will give credit where credit is due.

6—I will be courteous to everyone and respectful toward the authorities of the school.
