Dedication

On the pages of this yearbook are reflected a period of life which is a part of every American Community. We appreciate the good fortune which has made us a part of this way of life.

To the communities which the students of our school call 'home'; Highland, represented by our cover, Alhambra, Grantfork, and New Douglas, shown on these pages, we dedicate this book. Our study in school will, we know, help us in future years, continue to be responsible builders of American Community life.

This year the G.A.A. increased greatly in number because of the many new freshmen. In the fall they enjoyed the usual hayride and also presented a combination dance with the Lettermen. In January all the girls helped give a chili supper after a game. The Spring marked the high-lite of the year with G.A.A.'s from the area coming to Highland for a playday. That was quite an undergoing for the girls and they did a fine job. The girls in the opposite picture honored HHS GAA by taking 3rd in the All-State Bowling Tournament. Norma Ims took 3rd in the singles.

The team in action.

The Bulldogs of Highland High, directed by Coach Costilow and Assistant Coach Kaufman, showed great spirit and determination. Although the Varsity was greatly outclassed, it was improved and promised future victories. They played the more experienced schools such as Bethalto, Wood River, Roxana, Riverview Gardens, Madison, Cahokia, and Dupo. However, when the competition was more equal, several victories were credited to Highland by the Junior Varsity and the Freshman team. The Junior Varsity won two games and the Freshman one.

On November 16 the Juniors presented their play, "Pride and Prejudice". It was a three act play about an English family in the 17th century. There were five daughters in the family and Mrs. Bennet, the mother, was doing her best to have them wed. Her attempts were amusing to Mr. Bennet, until one daughter eloped and another was ill because she had lost her lover. Three were wed to well-to-do gentlemen, for which Mrs. Bennet took credit.

"A" TEAM CHEERLEADERS

Both the "A" and "B" cheerleaders did a fine job of getting the students to yell. They put on skits on the history of cheerleading, set up pep meetings in the form of contests and gave points for the volume put out by the students.

As usual the pep band was up in their little section of the gym for all the home games. Their lively music was looked forward to at the pep meetings. They entertained the spectators between games and at the half time break.

The Homecoming at H.H.S. was another beautiful affair. The fifteen maids were elected from each of the four classes by their classmates. Their escorts were elected by their teammates in their respective sports.

From the maids selected by the classes the student body voted on three special maids and then the queen. The queen was escorted and crowned by the Athlete of the Year who was selected from the escorts.

These pictures show our queen, Queen Kay as she is bowing to the crowd, being crowned by Bob Menz, and as her court is paying their homage to her.
