SPRING

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. John DeLaurenti

Mr. DeLaurenti has been superintendent here in Highland for 16 years. Three years ago he moved from his office here in the High School to a modernized larger one in the grade school building.

MAIN OFFICE

Mrs. Lorena Senn

Mrs. Senn isn't seen by us high school students as much as she used to be. She has watched 17 classes go through the graduation ceremony in June.

Shirley Suess
Diane Day

Shirley Suess and Diane Day became parts of our office group shortly after the new school was finished. They both graduated from Highland High so feel right at home.

MR. HILBERT

We the class of 1958 gratefully dedicate this Iris to Mr. Hilbert. In his career as Highland's basketball coach he twice guided the team to the State Tournament. He also served as Highland's baseball coach for years. Through his 14 years of coaching at Highland, his good sportsmanship and loyalty have been peerless.

Although he is retiring from coaching basketball, he will remain a devoted teacher and an ardent class sponsor as he has been to us for the last 4 years. His willingness in our class projects helped us to achieve our goals. With his sincere advice he contributed much to the success of our high school days.

The background features a large, abstract graphic design. It consists of a dark grey, elongated, pointed shape that tapers towards the top left. A gold-colored shape, also elongated and pointed, overlaps the dark grey one, extending further towards the bottom left. In the lower right quadrant, there is a gold-colored rectangular frame containing a stylized, rounded archway or doorway shape. The overall composition is minimalist and modern.

MUS-GET, FIRE, AND DRUM

LEFT--RIGHT--LEFT

One fall afternoon the band led the students uptown for a pep rally.

A LITTLE LOUDER NOW

We marched up town to DRUM up public interest.

BLOW MAN, BLOW

At the bon-fire before the Dupo game, the pep band made up for the fizzling FIRE.

MY IT'S DARK

We MUS-KET some school spirit by having a bon-fire.

JANITORS

If it weren't for these two men this school would be a terrible place to face each morning. Although we mess their polished floors and smear their shiny windows, they never seem to be daunted. Even though most of us never take the time to, we'd all like to say thanks.

Mr. Senn and Mr. Hug

STUDENT ADVISOR

MR. STRATTON

Where do I get it? How do I do it? This is the girl to ask. Carol Kessmann is our office secretary and Number One helper when we need information and assistance in doing some job.

This is Mr. Stratton's second year as Student Advisor. Besides counselling students, he teaches Modern World History, instructs Driver's Training students and is assistant basketball coach.

CAROL KESSMANN

MR. WHITE

PRINCIPAL

It wouldn't be H. H. S. without this face. Our principal has an amazing sixth sense for knowing when and where trouble is brewing. The trouble ends quickly when he enters upon the scene. No one could be a better pal to each of us than Mr. White.

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, likely belonging to Mr. White.

THE IRIS STAFF

Most of the members of the Iris Staff were new this year.

Therefore, it took some time to get the staff organized. The members spent the first few months of the year compiling information for the Highland High Directory, the yearbook supplement.

In October Mr. Diefenbach, Nancy Spindler, Jim Collmann, Marie Habbegger, and Carl Baumann attended a Journalism Convention at the University of Illinois. They came back overflowing with enthusiasm and new ideas.

Nancy Spindler, Editor-in-Chief; Mr. Diefenbach, Advisor; Shirley Imboden, Typist; Marie Habbegger, Literary Editor.

Joyce Friesse, Copy; Sylvia Lueker, Typist; Bob Sauter, Art; Dot Reding, Typist; Kay Byrne, Typist; Lois Nungesser, Copy.

BULLDOG MAGAZINE AND RUNT

The Bulldog Magazine Staff met at the same time that the Iris Staff met. The magazine came out monthly with news and feature attractions. In addition to those, the staff published a Runt Edition twice a week. The members alternated in writing the news and announcements for it. The final edition of the Bulldog in honor of the Seniors was published at the NewsLeader and contained glimpses of the past four years at Highland High.

STANDING: K. Byrne, Typist; N. Spindler, R. Ernst, Reporters; R. Schaffner, Art; S. Imboden, Typist. SEATED: M. Becker, J. Frisse, Reporter; L. Bohnensteil, Business; L. Nungesser, R. Creitz, J. Riggs, Reporters.

TERRIFIC TEACHERS

Each day we see these people's faces and learn from them as students in other schools learn from their faculties. This group seems different, though. They are so close-knit and friendly with us. Although, at times, we think they're rough, the overall opinion is that they are TOPS.

Mrs. Stratton came to the rescue of the Spanish class in October and then was relieved by Miss Kaseburg in January.

This year our football season was really wet! It rained for three of our four home games. Because of it, the band was able to perform at only one game.

Highland had its first victory this year. We lost our game with Madison, but scored more points against them than any other team did.

Delmar Rutz took seventh place in the district for points scored. He was later chosen as Prep Player of the Week and had a personal interview on KXOK.

Coaches Kaufman and Koper guided the Bulldogs to victory.

PREP PLAYER OF THE WEEK

IT'S NEW TO ME

A short while after he received his football letter, Delmar Rutz was honored as KXOK's Prep Player of the Week.

JUST TEAR IT OFF

The cheerleaders demonstrated a real game.

THAT WAS A FOOTBALL GAME?

Helmut Martin, our German exchange student joined the football team. Although he had never played before, he really got out and dug.

HARMONY FROM PONCHO

Poncho's band was the life of the Victory Dance with the South of the Border Music.

I COULD HAVE DANCED ---

Larry Widman found the game a muddy one. Where was that nice clean ball, I wonder?

"Larry Widman was a bit more presentable at the dance", said Lois.

HICKS LEAVE THE STICKS

Hicks Leave the Sticks was presented by the Junior Class. Two Hill-Billy brothers won a trip around the world. The boys' experiences and discoveries entertained us on November 15.

The Class of '59 did a fine job of writing and presenting its play.

C. Iberg, J. Zobrist, R. Hemann, and M. Southard sang for the brothers on the trip to Europe.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization composed of 14 members - 2 freshmen, 3 sophomores, 4 juniors, and 5 seniors. It meets every Monday morning from 10:30 to 11:00. In this half hour they discuss the problems and make suggestions pertaining to our high school. The Student Council is responsible for putting on the Homecoming, and it also sponsors other various activities in the school year.

STANDING: D. Ammann, D. Weder, C. Christoe.

Seven days of feasting after seven days of fasting! The spectacular BULLDOGS after winning a sensational football game, before a "shook up" crowd, ended a week of fascinatin' celebratin' with a great big shin-dig which was kindly sponsored by our benevolent Student Council. Our terrifically sensational meal consisted of victory nectar and pigskins.

THE CEREMONY

The 1958 Homecoming of Highland High was a spectacular event. The highlight of the evening was the announcing of the new Athlete of the Year, Delmar Rutz, and the crowning of the new Queen, Nancy DeLaurenti. Seven girls represented the Senior class, five from the Junior and three the Sophomore. All were eligible to become Queen. Four Freshman girls served as pages and three boys from that class escorted former Queens to their seats.

PEP SQUAD

BLEACHER BOPS

Under the direction of Mr. Lyon, the pep band filled in the half-time and between game breaks at the home games. With snappy tunes, they made their corner of the gym popular by the end of the season. Low spirits were perked up when we were behind and high spirits were reinforced when we were ahead by the lively marches.

PEOPLE, PLANES AND THINGS

This peppy crew led the marching band all through its career this year. The girls spent much time practicing their routine. Pat Steiner, Peg Stueber, Sharon Beck.

Freshman cheerleaders and mascot. Kathy Luner, Jeanne Baumann, Nancy Rogier, Donna Weder, Shirley Zobrist and Kathy's bulldog.

Mr. Lyon, band director. Mr. Lyon has been in Highland for seven years. He has charge of the Concert Band, Junior High Band and the grade school students.

The faculty got a real treat in spring when Merle Wernle gave the members a ride in his plane. "Beats a car any day", says he.

Behind the band at the Spring Concert was a Chinese curtain and a monstrous bee and hive. Before the stage was a row of colorful flowers.

Starting the year with a bang, the band was invited to march at the Carbondale Homecoming Parade and attend a big football game. Mr. Lyon, the director, had very tricky march themes for each home football game. The band took their usual trip to Champaign to hear the U. of I. Concert Band. However our students could not stay overnight because of room shortage. The spring concert was most colorful with "Around the World in Eight Tunes" as a theme. Mrs. Christoe and her art students helped set everyone in the mood with their intricate decorations. During the year certain members of the band attended Sight Reading Clinic, Madison County Band Festival and South Central Band Festival.

Mr. Godsey

Since 1926 when the first Glee Club was organized with approximately twenty-five members, this organization has steadily increased in size and reputation until now it has eighty-nine members under the capable direction of Mr. James M. Godsey. The group took part in many activities during this school year. Among these were: presenting assembly programs for the student body, singing in the three band concerts, performing for the P. T. A. and other organizations. In May the group participated in and acted as hosts for the Madison County Senior High School Chorus Festival under the direction of Mr. Harold A. Decker and Mr. Robert K. Baar.

FIRST ROW: Sharon Beck, Lorraine Poss, Judy Wall, Patti Kaufman, Sandy Aemisegger. THIRD ROW: Rich Schrupf, Gene Hosto, Curt Iberg, Leon Schien, Rich Gusewelle, Sterling Schoen, Tommy Ulmet, Jerry Loyet, Earl Steiner.

ACCOMPANISTS: Betty Witschie and Sharon Beck

The four seniors elected to go to the All-State Music Festival: Peg Stueber, Judy Hanser, Curt Iberg and Ray Rosenthal, with accompanist Sharon Beck.

GIRLS CHORUS

On March 28, 1958, the Highland High School Choruses presented a Spring Concert. THE MODEL BRIDE, an operetta in two acts, was given by the Girls' Chorus.

Mme. Beaumont (played by Sandy Hug), proprietress of a famed Atlantic City Modiste Shop, takes an interest in all her customers. So do her six charming mannikins who are endowed with a fair share of feminine curiosity. So, when Larry Purcell (Karen Bircher) buys trunk-loads of wedding finery with apparently no particular bride in view the rumors fly thick and fast.

In making all his purchases Larry has insisted that Dulcie Du Long (Marg Liebler) model the luxurious creations. In true Cinderella fashion she displays the gowns, secretly wishing that she might be the bride. However, her dreams are shattered when Mme. Beaumont runs across a newspaper item commenting on Larry's approaching wedding.

A duet in which Larry tells Dulcie that she has been the Model Bride all along sets everything right and the curtain falls with the wedding just around the corner.

FIRST ROW: K. Ruegger, K. Luner, M. Weder, K. Hug, S. Hug. SECOND ROW: J. Riggs, C. Hertzberg, G. Lueker, G. Federer, M. Altevogt, R. Creitz. THIRD ROW: J. Maroon, L. Nungesser, K. Kapp, M. Roberts, K. Bircher, N. Plocher.

A large, bold, black letter 'S' is centered within a thin black rectangular border. The 'S' is stylized with thick strokes and rounded terminals. The entire graphic is tilted at an angle, matching the orientation of the large 'S' in the background. The background features a large, dark, stylized 'S' shape that is partially obscured by a lighter, semi-transparent version of the same shape, creating a layered effect. The overall design is minimalist and modern.

The Seniors won the G.A.A. volleyball tournament with Juniors taking second.

Relaxing after a fun-filled week in Missouri are Kay Kapp, Jeanne Maroon, Kathy Luner, Shirley Zobrist, and Nancy Hirsch.

The G.A.A. hailed over 80 members this year. Some of the members attended Play Days at Bethalto and Edwardsville. In spring the girls experienced the time of their lives at Black River Lodge swimming, dancing, riding, playing tennis, volleyball, and ping-pong.

The Juniors defeated the Seniors 4-3 to take the final game of the softball tournament. All through the year the two classes were nip and tuck in the race for the G.A.A. plaque award.

TUCKERED TWIRLERS

Joyce Werner, Judy Wilkie, Hope Harmon relax inbetween throws. The G.A.A. bowled at the Masonic Temple and V.F.W. this year.

BASEBALL!

Bob Menz and Coach Hilbert

This year the Highland High School baseball team had a very successful season. Its Midwestern Conference record was 9-1 and for the entire season they had a 15-3 record.

In the Regional Tournament held at Litchfield, Highland defeated Jerseyville 7-2. In the first game we won over Litchfield 7-5. Hitting stars for this game were Ramsey, Werner, Essenpreis, and Rutz.

Coach Hilbert attributed the great season to the good material which made up the team. "All the boys were extremely strong," he said. I believe everyone was well satisfied with our record.

ALOHA

'Neath swaying palm trees and a heavenly blue sky the students of H. H. S. danced to strains of Hawaiian love songs. Midway through the evening the island guests feasted upon pineapple delights and Hawaiian punch. All agreed the Junior-Senior Prom was an enchanting and beautiful success.

Roger Landolt won the Menz Award for having the highest scholastic record for a boy in the Senior Class and for having earned an athletic letter his Senior year.

AMERICAN LEGION AWARDS

Sandra Holcombe and Roger Landolt were chosen by their class for the American Legion Award because of their fine citizenship record in high school.

A clear, warm evening made lining up outside enjoyable.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

Baccalaureate Service was held at the First Congregational Church of Highland, Sunday, May 18 marked the evening service. Reverend Diller of the church gave the talk. Marilyn Mollet and Ken Duft led the Class of 1958 through the ceremony.

The class enters the church to "Pomp and Circumstance".

The class and viewers wait for the choir to enter.

SENIOR TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert stand in the garden at Mt. Vernon.

On May 24 the Seniors left for Washington D. C. with Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert as sponsors. The grand time that everyone had will live in their memories for a long time.

KNIVES AND FORKS IN STARTING POSITION

What a fast meal on the train. Judy tells Sandy, "If you stop to chew, they'll take your plate."

CHEERS

The Club Car was just about the most popular spot on the train. The H.H.S. Seniors took over the place when they boarded.

SHOULD I PASS OR BID A HEART?

Dave and Mona weren't as tired the first night as Judy Strebel was. A game of cards should relax them.

WHO'S COMFORTABLE?

Merle Wernle, Roger Long and Judy Hanser finally settled down to sleep on the rocking train.

The boys had to get a drink after climbing Washington Monument the first day.

Mud packs, hair dyes, new shoes and cameras all get looked over the first night in the hotel.

H.H.S. Seniors leave the Library of Congress on the second day. They also saw the Capitol, Supreme Court, Smithsonian Institute and the White House.

Some of the Seniors swam in the pool at the girls' hotel the second night.

Rebels and Union men wage a war at cards on the train home. Pillows made fine card tables!

LAST CALL

This cheery fellow ran the Club Car on the return trip. At 8:30 P. M. he started his "Last Call" and finally closed shop at 10:30.

TRENTON NEXT STOP

The boys take down the suitcases as the porter calls "Trenton."

GRADUATION OF THE CLASS of 1958

Waiting for the Processional to begin, the Seniors talk over past experiences.

Marilyn Mollet and Ken Duft lead the Seniors into the gym.

62 Seniors gathered at the high school on May 29 for graduation exercises. All were filled with mixed emotions as they entered the gym to "Triumphal March." For those who were not going to college, it was the end of school days. For all, it meant leaving friends and associates.

Mr. White presents the Class of 1958.

Dr. Sylvia Sorkin of Washington University was the graduation speaker. Her rich sense of humor and inspiring words thrilled everyone.

The band played two selections, "Light Cavalry" and "Bugler's Holiday". The choruses sang "June Is Bustin' Out All Over", "You'll Never Walk Alone", and "Halls of Ivy".

BULLDOGS BURST THROUGH SECTIONAL AND SUPER SECTIONAL

The Sectional Tournament that Highland played in was held at Olney. Highland took an early lead on March 13th and held it to defeat Paris 68 to 58. Highland Oblong game seemed to be jinxed. The halftime score was 6 to 3.

The score see-sawed back and forth until the very end with Highland winning 27 to 26.

Highland's contender at the Super Sectional was Jerseyville, who gave the Bulldogs a real run for their money. In an overtime, Highland was victorious 49 to 46.

V.I.P.'s AT STATE TOURNAMENT

Nancy DeLaurenti represented Highland High in the Elite Eight Queen Contest. She was one of the maids in the Queen's Court.

Kay Byrne was chosen as one of the eight girls of the "All-State Cheer Team" while at the state tournament. She has been a cheerleader at H.H.S. for 4 years. Congratulations on so great an honor!

Larry Dean Essenpreis who has played basketball all through high school was named on the All-State Tournament Second Team and named on the District Team. Nice going!

When the Bulldogs went to state, they took a live mascot with them! Teddy Riggs donned a ferocious bulldog mask and sat in the center of the gym to inspire our team.
