CRADUATION

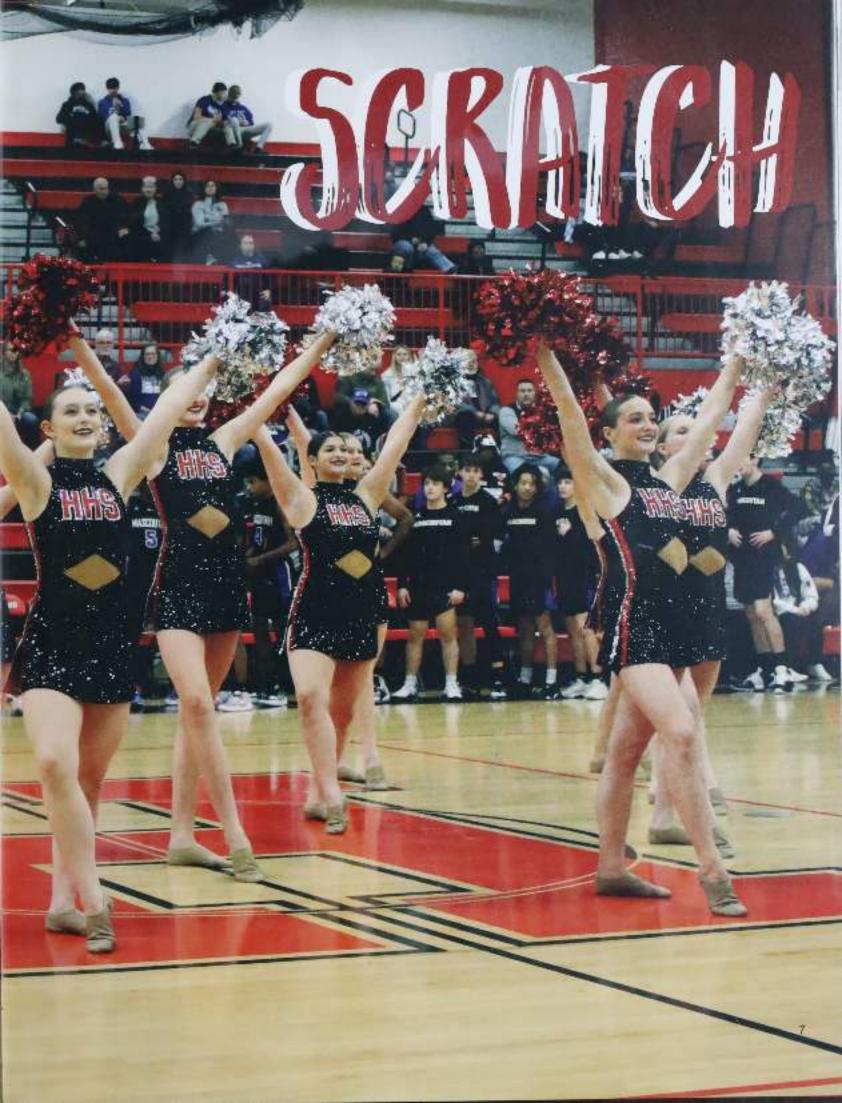

Despite the many changes they have experienced throughout the last couple years, the Bulldogs always persevered. They have represented what it truly means to be a Bulldog, and now, they are back and better than ever. The Bulldogs are ready to leave the challenging past behind them. They are ready to start from scratch.

The Class of 2023 starts their year fresh by taking on the Fourth Annual Chalk Your Spot. The seniors gather the night before school and snag their favorite parking spot. They fill their spots with large murals of their names, sayings, and TV show characters. Bright and early the next morning, the senior class celebrates their last year of high school with a group breakfast. They bring in various donuts, hash browns, muffins, and even breakfast pizza. To continue the celebration, they take photos and start the year on a positive note.

THE RETURN OF THE BULLDOGS

Freshman Modale Molitor shares how she's excilled to be in high school-because she will have more appartunities and more freedom than she did as a middle school student.

Sophomore Alyssa Vidmar catches up withher friend Kaleigh Casper (11).

When reflecting on his last first day at HHS, Senior Travis Gieseking replied, "It is relieving knowing that this is my last year to put in all my effort for my tuture."

As students filed back into Highland High School for the 2022-2023 school year, their attitudes were nothing short of optimistic. We asked students their thoughts surrounding the upcoming school year, and they were quick to share their enthusiasm for the year to come. Students quickly fell back into the routine of school and prepared for the new academic year.

Advice from the Principals

FORE THE WIN!

The girls golf team had a very successful season this fall. At the start of the season, Coach Jordan Keeven and Coach Aaron Schumacher asked the girls to list some personal and team goals for the season. The girls had some very difficult goals, such as winning tournaments, but they put their heads down and got to work. The girls met all of their team goals in the first three weeks of their season. They won three matches and a tournament, but they didn't stop there. They went on to defeat other teams in matches and compete with the boys golf team to win the MVC CO-ED Tournament at Scott Air Force Base. The girls ended up falling just short of 1st place in regionals and 4th in sectionals. Sydney Coziar qualified for the state competition as an individual.

Taking action. As Sophomore Sydney Cozlar went through winning titles for the team during the girls' season. Her regional and sectional scores were no different. She shot a beautiful round at regionals.

From fighting to win games, battling injuries, and tackling tough teams, the varsity boys soccer team never failed to maintain a positive attitude through any battle thrown their way. The game against Mascoutah was a prime example as they tought for victory until the last second, beating the Indians in penalty kicks. They never falled to bring that positivity and share if with others, in their Kickin for a Cure game, the boys demonstrated passionate play while raising awareness for their cause. Through this event, the boys raised money for Ovarian Cancer organizations and dedicated the game in memory of Erica Robertson, Head Coach Jay Robertson's wife. They never doubted their amozing talents and abilities to beat the apparents. One of the most memorable moments was their senior night. They used their own talents and abilities to work together to bring home the win against Waterlao, ending their regular season with an amazing win.

RUNNING INTO A NEW SEASON BOYS AND GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

What motivates you to keep running?

Maddison Dortch (12)

My love for the aport and my dedication to my friends." Dallas Mancinas (11)

"Well, I'd just simply answer that with why would I stop running? Nothing is greater than a stride of perfect form on the course and to try to take that away from myself is absolutely preposterous."

Briea Perkins (9)

"What motivates me to run is my teammates. My team always motivates everyone no matter what. It's the thrill of them cheering everyone on which keeps me going."

The Bulldogs killed it at their first invitational of the season. They competed at CM, and both teams destroyed the competition. Dallas Mancinas got 3rd, Ethan Smith got 5th, Payton Frey got 2nd, and Tarryn Keeney got 8th. At the Highland Invitational, the boys got 3rd place, and the girls killed it with 2nd place. In the JV race, Adin Roach had the best time of 19:09.40. At the end of the season, both teams did well at regionals to later advance to sectionals as teams. At the regionals, the boys placed 4th while the girls placed 3rd.

Varsity Volleyball

The voileyball team made it a priority to celebrate big after each rewarding moment. The girls worked hard to win each rally to stay on top. Their season consisted of multiple wins over Triad, Civic Memorial, Jerseyville, and Collinsville. Even through tough plays, they never doubted their ability to follow through and win the match. Their talents did not go unnoticed. Their abilities to serve, hit, set, and dig the ball were unmatched latents compared to their competition over the season. When asking Coach Oil what sets this season's fearn apart from past teams, she shared, 'Growth... The girls had to learn quickly how to handle the pressure at a varsity level. And they continued to grow as athletes, fearmmates, and individuals. As a whole program, we grew as wall. Girls were constantly changing roles or fearns and it was exciting to see how they stepped up to the plate. We have big things coming in the future!"

MARCHING BAND

This year, the marching band's show was titled "Call of the Sea" and featured songs from Disney's Moana, a well known concert band piece "Of Sailors and Whales," and the TikTok trending song "The Wellerman," It featured solos by Sydney Seitz (12), Emma Caminiri. (11), Joe Jansen (12), and Elias Allen (11). The set also featured a short tuba solo by Nathan Klaas (10). Throughout the season, the band traveled to five different schools all through Illinois to compete against other bands. This year, they went to O'Fallon, Edwardsville, Effingham, Newton, and the University of Illinois. This season, the band won captions of best music, best color guard, and best general effect while also taking home a 1st place trophy at The Effingham Marching Hearts Invitational. Finally, at the Illinois Marching Band Championships at the University of Illinois, the band placed 4th in their division and 5th out of the entire competition.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The variety football team had a very successful season this year. The team created a very committed work ethic that could not be ignored. This showed not just on the field, but during practices, learn dinners, and even walking through the hallways every Friday while wearing their Jerseys. The team was dealcated to making this season the best one yet for each other. They fought lough teams, tough initiales, and even a couple lough losses, but it only made them stronger. They earned a 9.2 record to lihish out the season. One of these important wins was the Mississippi Valley Conference Championship when they took down the Mascoutah Indians 56-0. Ranked as the second seed, they also achieved a spot in the 5A playoffs, Their accomplishments led to a fantastic season.

EXECUTIVE

Student council had a very successful 2022-2023 school year. They started off the year with dress up days to welcome students back to school with twin day, camo, and more. Student council also took on homecoming week, which was one of their most important and busiest weeks of the year. They had a carnival, pep rally, and dress up days to lead up to the disco themed dance. They also adopted a family during the Christmas season. Many chose a family in need and gave them a Christmas they would never forget. They piled in toys, clothes, and other items to make life a little easier. They also put on Mr. Irresistible, where they provided a night full of talent, dancing, and a crazy amount of irresistibility. The student council really gave the students an unforgettable year.

Highland Hooligans brought an amazing wave of excitement to student sections this year. The group was made of any seniors that would like to bring school spirit to cheer on players at sporting events. They started off their work at the football games on Friday nights. They added confetti for kickoff, paint and fat heads of their favorite senior football players, and glow sticks to shine after sunset. Dress up days were also included every Friday for school and leading up to the game. They brought cowboys, Halloween costumes, U.S.A. pink out, camouflage, and construction for themes every Friday to hype up the student section. The students followed cheers and chants from the cheerleaders and made sure the students were as loud as possible. Overall, they created an exhilarating environment for the students to cheer on the players every week

BULLDOG GEAR FRIDAY

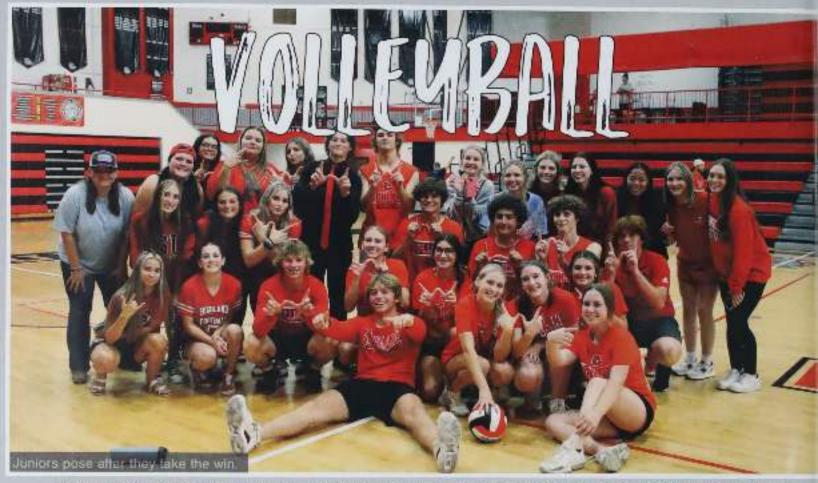

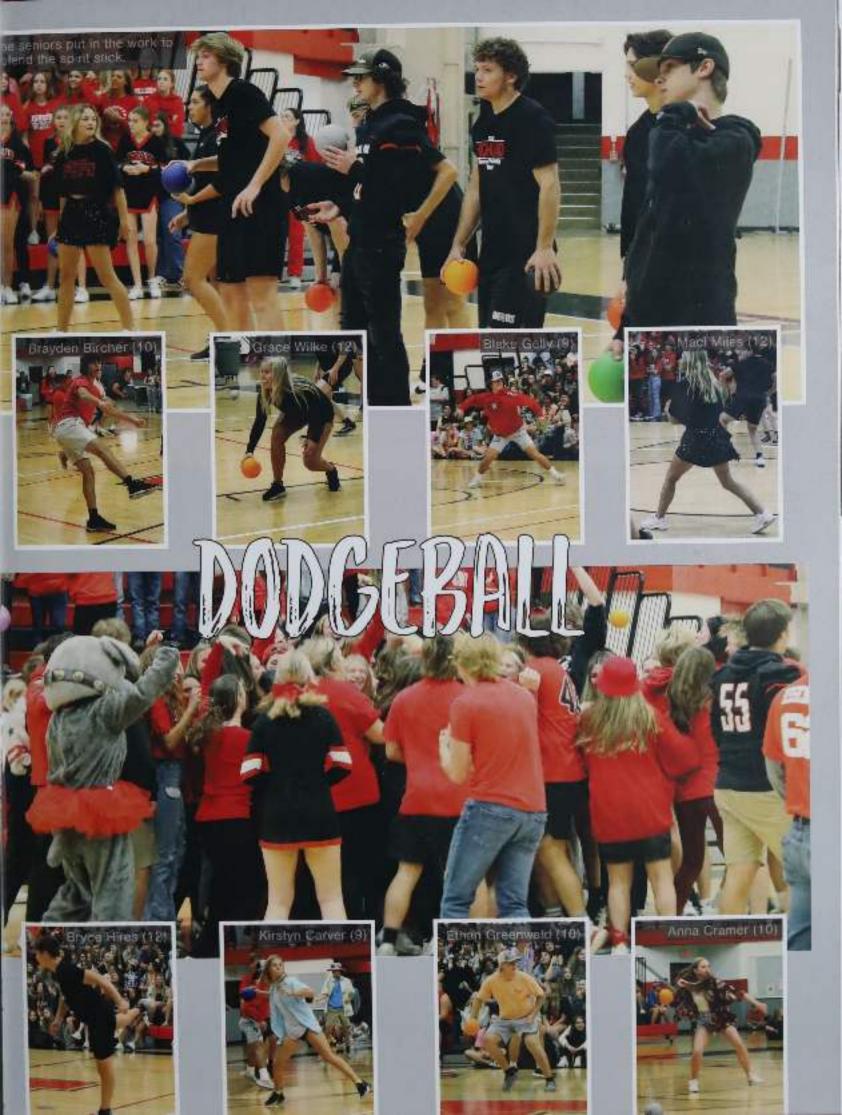

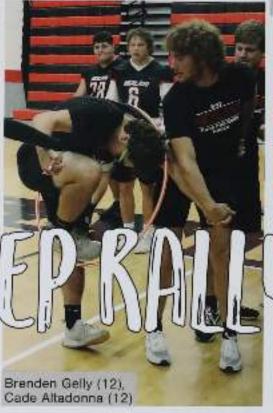

Homecoming week is full of various activities, such as power volleyball and dodgeball. The students from each class gather their best athletes to make the most competitive teams. Throughout the week, students cheer on each other and show their school spirit. The classic rivalry occurs between the senior and junior classes, making each game more intense. In the end, the juniors won the activities, but the seniors came out on top with the spirit stick.

The football cheer leaders get the Brenden Gelly (12), student body ready for a great pep rally. Cade Altadonna (12)

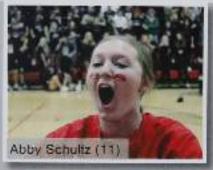

As an exciting week of Homecoming activities came to a close, the school week ended with a bang. Students celebrated the Homecoming carnival with games, inflatables, face paint, grade bonner signings, and mummying. The activities filled the school while students oustled between each one. The carnival, however, was only the beginning. After a lively morning, students headed into the gymfor the annual Homecoming pep rally, and the seniors were revealed as the winners of the coveted spirit stick. During the pep rally, students competed in tug-o-war, hula hoop relays, and dadgeball.

NOW ENTERING BULLDOG TERRITORY

An exciting win was just what the Bulldogs needed to wrap up an exciting school week. Decked out in camo, the students put on the best display of school spirit. Everyone was prepared to face our fiercest rivals and battle for the greatest prize; bragging rights. A chicken and even the grim reaper paid a visit as Triad's demise was upon us. Highland ended up defeating Triad with a score of 35-0, sealing a victory.

"My favorite memory was when Mrs. Wesselmann yelled at us for standing on chairs." -Christian Knobloch (10)

"My favorite memory was when Christian threw me overboard at a choir concert." -Elias Allen (11)

At Highland High School, there are a few various choirs that students can be involved in. The two main choirs are A Cappella and Mixed Choir, both of which are classes during the school day. A Cappella is an audition only choir while Mixed is open to all students at HHS. Throughout the year, both choirs perform at multiple concerts, but for the A Cappella Choir, there are the extra options of the Madrigals and Chamber Choir. Instead of performing at concerts, these groups attend the Renaissance Fair in Kansas City and hold a Madrigal Dinner in December. The last choir is the show choir, named Dissonance. This choir creates a show with choreography and singing. They travel to various cities and schools to compete in competitions.

As soon as marching band season comes to an end, all band students audition to be in either the concert band or the wind ensemble. Both bands consist of many instruments that are less likely to be used in marching band. From October to May, both bands have concerts in the fall, right before Christmas, and even one in the spring call the Pops Concert. All band members are also welcome to participate in band festivals around the area, such as solo and ensemble contests as well as ILMEA, MVC, and Bi-State competitions.

"My favorite memory from the fall play was when we got sidetracked and watched Ghost Adventures educationally."
-Lukas Raynor (11)

"Think my favoritememory during the fall play was whenever we ran the practice, Mr. Lewis would make such exaggerated reactions and make us all break character." -Kennedy Purtle (11)

'My favorite memory of the fall play was the finial show when Mr. Lewis revealed that he was the writer of the show we just spent two months learning.' -Talon Vrell (12)

"My favorite memory is when I got to watch Ian Diamond crawl on the floor like a gnot. It was very scary." -JayIn Headrick (11)

'I really enjoyed it when Mr. Lewis revealed that he was the writer for the play. He said, 'I am Radia Rebel,' and we were all very confused until a couple of us understood."

-Malachi Hampsch (10)

THE MADRIGAL DINNER

The 2022 Madrigal Dinner was hosted by Her Grace Lady Holly who ordered a MASSIVE Advent calenda to be built for this very occasion. As the nobles gathered to celebrate the holiday festivities, she hid secret objects within the calendar that she hoped would spark drama, romance, and humor among her guests. Over the course of the dinner, Lady Holly called each of the nobles up to open one of the Advent calendar doors and the ensuing action prompted by the items that she staged for them lead to many twists and turns. By the end, there was one door that remained unopened, and the dinner concluded with her revealing her very own Christmas surprise!

W Dogs is a broadcasting team ran by HHS students. For the past ten years, these students have been sharing the school's events to the community. From broadcasting assemblies, to sports events, and even to dances, the W Dogs have worked hard to share moments we all want to experience. In fact, they have broadcasted over 400 events, earning them more than 54,125 views since August 2019. Each W Dog takes on their own leadership role when they broadcast events. Most importantly, Mr.Durbin is proud of his seniors who take the new team members under their wing to show them how to become a great member to this special team.

The Spooky Club celebrated it's two year anniversary this year. It made it's return after starting off with a bang last year. In Spooky Club, members have to take an oath, vowing to honor the club and all that it stands for. Spooky Club celebrates all things scary and slightly creepy by watching movies, making crafts, having frightening relay races, and making their own spells. The club only lasts for the month of October and ends with a Closing Ceremony.

Parents Night Out is an event that encouraged parents to send their children from first through fifth grade to have a fun interactive night. These kids also participated in activities to build their leadership and social skills.

OPERATION SNOWBALL

Operation Snowball is a program dedicated to creating an inclusive environment within Highland High School. Operation Snowball wants everyone to feel welcomed and heard. This year, their main focus was to spread mental health awareness. They hosted meetings to talk about several mental health topics. Some of the mental health lopics they have discussed have to deal with depression, stress, and anxiety. Through these meetings, students are able to gain awareness of these topics as well as how to manage them.

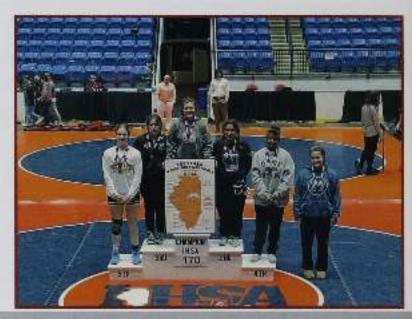

This year's officers are Anna Ray (11), Sayde Hogg (10), Gabbie Edds (11), and Josh Athmer (10). The officers plan and run the meetings and events Snowball hosted. Officers also attend CGTI, which is a leadership workshop.

BOYS BASKETBALL

The Bulldogs had a successful 21-11 season. including an exciting 58-54 win over the Waterloo Bulldogs on senior night. Each senior contributed in a special way to secure a final win at HHS. Cade Altadonna and Joe Jansen both had 15 points as well as 5 and 7 rebounds. Brendan Gelly added 9 points, and Gunnar Mackey contributed significant minutes. Taking a more unique role, injured senior Bryce Hires cheered his teammates on from the sidelines. Junior Jake Ottensmeier also aided his seniors by scoring 15 points. The match-up proved to be intense as both teams fought to come out on top, being neck and neck until the end when the Highland Bulldogs triumphantly seized the victory.

The Bulldogs pulled off an intense 56-54 win against the Quincy Notre Dame Raiders in the Highland Shootout. Junior Jake Ottensmeier executed an impressive dunk, and Braxdon Decker (So.) earned the MVP award after making an exciting game-winning layup seconds before the final buzzer.

Mr. Irresistible was nothing short of a huge success this spring. The senior boys competed for the most irresistible guy at Highland High School. They opened up with a group dance to give the crowd a good look at all the contestants. Then, they went on to showcase their talents as some performed a dance number, gave a presentation, and even dazzled with a magic show, which featured the judges to assist. The boys got all dolled up and proceeded to the interviews where they gave their opinions on real world topics. Some of them shared their views on their dream travel destinations, famous people they wanted to meet, and much more. Once the show was coming to a close, the audience chose Garrett Schlarmann as their favorite contestant. The judges then announced and crowned their 2023 Mr. Irresistible as Gabe Schwartz. Reece Korte was listed as the runner-up.

HHS has a fantastic Spanish program with teachers who truly care about educating students. Most students take Spanish all four years of high school. In Spanish I, students learn the basic vocabulary and grammar. In Spanish II, students build on what they learned their first year. They tackle a bit more learned their first year. They tackle a bit more advanced grammar and vocabulary. In Spanish III, students immerse themselves in Spanish culture and progress their grammar practice even further. In the students' last year, Spanish IV, they learn to write longer paragraphs and have more developed conversations. With each year, students learn more and more about the language. By the time the students are out of high school, they will have a foundation for further Spanish education and a way to communicate with other Spanish speaking people.

Spanish I

Sra. Buchtel presents her trips from Europe to the freshman class. Sra. Buchtel introduces European cultures to inspire the students to become intrigued and want to learn more, especially about the Spanish cultures.

Spanish II

In Sra. Twyford's class, they use their recently learned grammar about describing their childhoods. Students each make their own slide to describe their childhood through the Spanish language.

Spanish III

Students in Sra. Cope's Spanish III class present their festivals to each other. As these students watch their classmates' presentations, they take notes on each festival the learned about.

Spanish IV

In Sra. Twyford's class, students learn the present subjunctive tense of verbs. In order to fully understand these ideas, students complete practice worksheets that include vocabulary as well as conjugations.

English

Throughout a student's 4 years of English, they go through many reading and writing challenges. From Romeo and Juliet to Frankenstein, students read plenty of classic books. Through their interactions with literature, students analyze and construct essays around the thematic and social elements of the text.

BUSINESS AND COMPUTERS

Personal Finance

In Mrs. Heinz's personal finance class, students learn valuable lessons on money handling that they can carry with them into adult life. These lessons include writing out checks, budgeting, and keeping track of their personal assets.

Accounting

Madison Stehlik (Jr.), a student currently taking accounting, is pictured below reviewing her resources from past lessons to prepare for an upcoming test.

Aiden Lelm (So.) takes part in ar accounting lesson. One of the important teachings that students learn in this class is how to properly record transactions for companies.

SCOTT CREDIT UNION

Two representatives from Scott Credit Union spoke to Highland High School students about their future budgets. With the help of these generous employees, students were able to gage what their futures will look like with the careers they currently desire. Monthly budgets were laid out, and students were able to plan a hypothetical monthly budget. This was important for students to be able to assess how they'll use their money in the future.

SCIENCE

This year, the science department had many different experiments throughout the year. Anatomy and physiology students performed many dissections, including a heart and brain. Chemistry students performed many labs, mixing chemicals to see reactions. Finally, the physics students tested the limits with race cars and naise labs.

Throughout Mr. Uhls' 25 years of teaching here at Highland High School, he has impacted the lives of many young students. Mr. Uhls primarily teaches Algebra Land
Pre-Calculus. With his cheerful and enthusiastic personality.
Mr. Uhls always finds a way to joke around with his students, making them love coming to his class every day. His students

SHOOTING FOR SUCCESS

The Bulldogs started the 2022-2023 basketball season with something to prove. Coming back this year stronger than ever, they quickly showed their competitors that they were not to be toyed with. The Bulldogs started strong, winning 9 out of their first ten games. With eyes now on them to extend this streak, they stayed consistent and were able to achieve the title of 2023 MVC Champions for the first time since 2015. Keeping the victories coming. the Bulldogs snatched the regional title from Waterloo in an intense 52-49 victory. Continuing through playoffs, the girls won the sectional championship in a 66-54 win against Mt. Vernon. Their exceptional season came to an end at the super sectional, but the Highland Buildogs ended their season with a lot to be proud of

WE ARE HIGHLAND COED CHEER

After being crowned IHSA state champions in 2022, the cheerleaders started their season by going to a cheer camp. This retreat allowed them to grow their bonds with old and new teammates. They had many difficulties throughout the year from having to rearrange their routing to dealing with injuries, but despite all of this, they always bounced back. The cheer team hosted ICCA Regionals where they finished in first place and took home the plaque. Conquering ICCA, the cheerleaders walked out of the convention center with medals around their necks and a shiny trophy in their hands. Celebrating their win by tradition, they all jumped in the hotel pool with their uniforms on and displayed the trophy together. After having to make difficult decisions, the team competed at sectionals and qualified for IHSA State. Walking into the state competition, the team had multiple first place finishes under their belt, but the season ended abruptly on the first day of IHSA. The cheerleaders came together one last time to honor the season they had and their new memories at their end of year banquet.

ALL STATE CHEERLEADERS:

Avery Miles, Lexie Fears, and Chloe McTeer

These three athletes were recognized at the Illinois Cheerleading and Coaches Association and were named on the all-state cheer team. To join the all-state team, they had to submit multiple videos meeting certain requirements. Only thirty cheerleaders are selected throughout the submissions.

Every year, the student ambassador team is composed of juniors and seniors with outgoing and friendly personalities. For the freshman orientation, this year's thome was "Tourist" as the freshman would be touring the school for the first time. All of the ambassadors put on all of their best tour guide outfits and led a bunch of fun activities, such as beach ball bonding, a rock-paper scissors tournament, and get-to-know-you bings. They ended the day by taking the incoming freshmen on a "scavenger hunt" around the building while collecting stickers at every location. Overall, the day helped the freshman be more comfortable before their first day.

CONSTRUCTION & BUILDING TRADES PROGRAM

Throughout the 2022-2023 school year, the Construction Class at Highland High School built a house to put on the market and sell in Highland. The class teaches students all of the work that goes into building a house or structure. The students start with a flat piece of land and work their way from the ground up to see the final product. They learn about every stage of the building process along with different skills and experience necessary to complete these stages. While they are building, they learn about potential careers and specialties that they could pursue in the future. Mr. Deibert works with contractors, plumbers, roofers, etc. to give the students the best possible chance at learning everything possible. Overall, students say that the most fulfilling part of the project is seeing the house after it is finally complete and learning with professionals that do these projects every day.

Gunnar Mackey (12) and Leo Deva (11) look through the kitchen plans for the placement of cabinets.

Kyran Weak (11) carries brick to the front of the house to put on scaffolding.

Kyle Hess (12) measures before cutting materials to be placed on the house.

Chase Zobrist (11) cuts base trim before placing them into the closet in the second bedroom.

What was the most beneficial lesson that you learned while building the house?

'The best lesson learned this year was how to make drywall repairs on my own." Ryan Trame (11)

"Mine was learning how to put my own flooring in for free when I am older." Adam Munie (11)

OUR GOAL?

STOPPING YOURS

With one senior, one junior, and the rest of the team being underclassmen, the varsity girls soccer team had challenges set before them. However, with positive encouragement from their three coaches, the goal that these girls set for themselves was to improve. This goal was definitely achieved as they won 5 more games, scored 26 more goals, and their goal keeper. Sophia Fleming, saved 22 more shots than the previous season. Everyone could see from the stands how much this team cared and loved each other, which definitely helped them play better together as a team.

It's Time To BeReal.

Keepin' It Real

BeReal was released in 2020, but the app didn't become popular until the summer of 2022. BeReal gave students a new way to capture what they do in their free time, giving an insight into their REAL lives. It gave an entertaining and exciting twist that was much different than most social media platforms. BeReal not only took a normal picture, but it also captured a picture from both the front and the back cameras. The app sent out a notification once a day, every day. Once the user clicked on the notification, they had 2 minutes to take a photo and show what they were doing right in that moment. This helped to show that everyone has a real life and not all social media is fake, edited, or set up to be perfect.

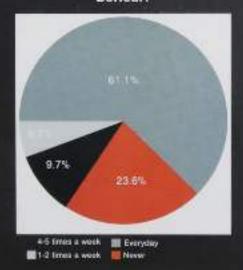

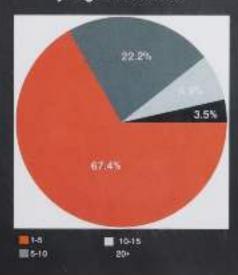

How often do you post your BeReal?

On average, how many reactions do you get on BeReal?

TO THE FUTURE ...

Maggie and Kelly's friendship started at the wonderful Wee Care Daycare in the infantroom. As they grew, so did their friendship and their shared love for softball. Since tee ball, they have played on the same team and leaned on each other for comfort, but their friendship didn't stop there. They traveled together to many beaches, amusement parks, and visited many states for softball tournaments. As high school came and went, they truly stayed best friends through it all.

Mason and Liv have continued to grow up together after meeting at daycare. They shared a common interest in running and would compete against and support one another during races. They spent summers on vacations with each other and did family hikes together. The pair gets to see each other every day at school and work, helping little kids learn how to swim. Now, they get to celebrate graduating together.

Brent and Colton met at Peppermint Preschool and grew their bond through their love for football. They were separated by different schools but still maintained their friendship during football practices. They have continued to play football together all the way up to their senior year. These two have remained best friends since their first meeting and have grown together, not apart.

Before they can have their official send-off, the seniors celebrated the last week of school by dressing up.

They said their goodbyes to their teachers and the community that shaped them. The Highland High School drum line escorted them out the building as a farewell.

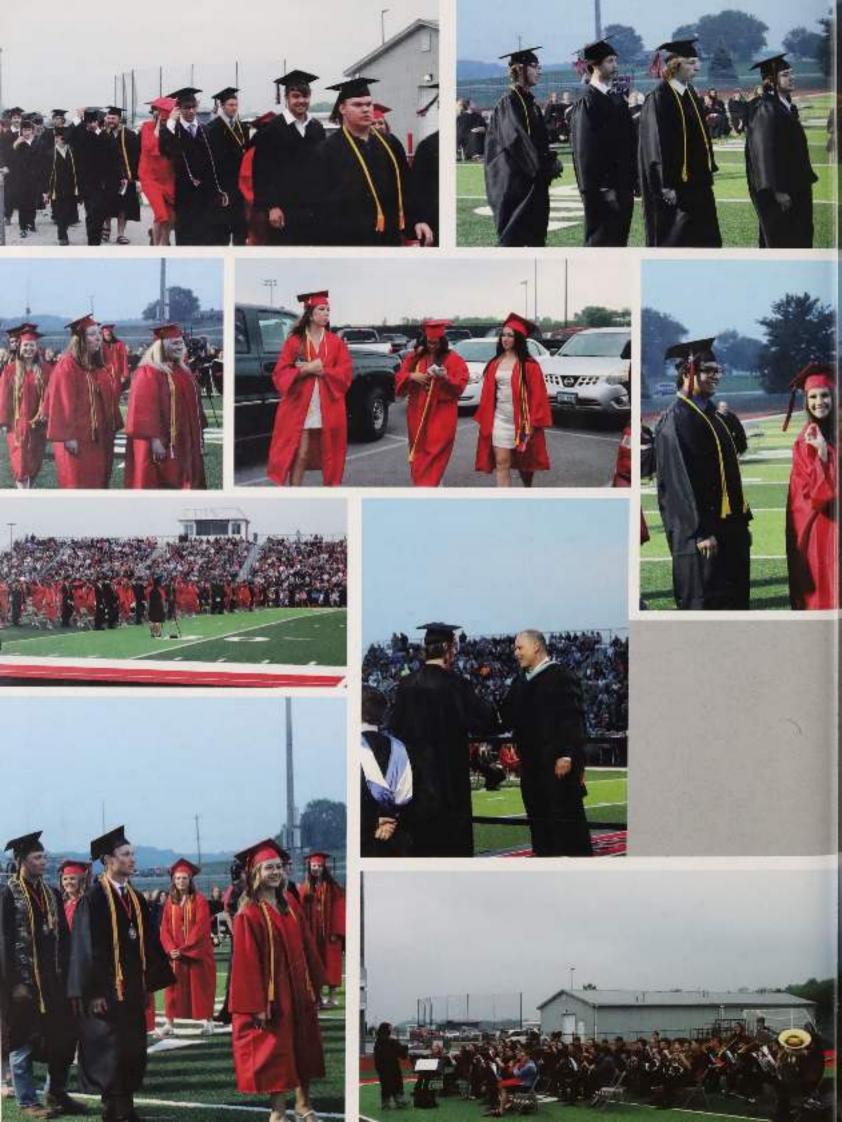

The HHS Class of 2023 came together one last time before graduation to watch the sunset. The seniors played volleyball, soccer, and football while enjoying snacks provided by the student council.

Parting words from your Administrators

For the graduating Class of 2023, the next phase of your journey lies ahead. Enjoy this moment as never again will this group of graduates be together as a class. It is an incredibly special moment.

And as you take the next step, make sure to enjoy life to the fullest. Show love, empathy, and compassion towards others. Do your best every day and find a way to make an impact. Set your goals and work to achieve them.

Know that adversity will come and knock you down. Somehow you will learn to use your skills, your grit, and your willpower to persevere. And even then, sometimes things will still go wrong.

Don't be afraid to ask for help. Failure is part of life and we should not fear it. It will happen and most often, that's when we learn the most.

And finally, whatever you decide to do, make the best of each and every day because they go fast and don't last forever. Find a way to make a difference in this world. Wake up each day, make something happen, and live life to the fullest.

Dear Seniors.

Thank you so much for continued dedication to not only the yearbook, but to your school community. You all have exhibited excellent leadership, communication, and resilience, especially when faced with all the challenges you have faced. Through your investment in Highland, you have served your fellow Bulldogs well. I am so proud of all you have accomplished, but please know that this is just the beginning. While your work ethic and passion for others will be preserved forever in this book, continue to let your goodness shine into everything you do and know that you will always have a family at HHS.

Proud of you always, Murphy

COLOPHON

Theme

As a staff, we chose the theme 'Starting From Scratch," This theme signifies leaving the past behind us and starting new this school year. Looking forward, we are now free from the burdens of the previous years. We are free to start from scratch.

Book

This year, the book was sold for $60,$80. Included in the book is 236. pages. The colors used in this book were VA Crimson Pride, Grayscale 34%, Black, White, CL Blueberry VI Apple Green, SP Jade, SP Mint, TR Bright Green, Greyscale 7%, CS Linen, and RA Toucan. We used the fonts AYT BANKER SQUARE, AYT Foundation Roman, AYT Foundation Sans. #T Letter Perfect, AYT Litho Antique, AYT MATTER OF PACT, AY I Urbano LI Conc. AYC Victorian, AYT Visiter Thick AYT WED 90. AYT Yellow secket, AND A section, AMI MOUNT TRUTH CAPS

Ads/Sponsors

This year we chose to do "Yearbook Angels." This means businesses had the aption to be either black or red level sponsors. Black level sponsors donate one yearbook and Red levels donate two. These books then get donated to students who otherwise would not be able to purchase a yearbook. We also offered senior tributes as a way to bring in revenue. Families of our seniors were able to purchase a special space towards the back of the book to honor their graduate with kind words and photos of them.

Extra

Our Jostens sales representative was Mr. Trent
Schauster and our advisor was Mrs. Anna Murphy. They both played a massive role in the development of our book.
The yearbook staff meets each day during 7th period.
We attend many different school events to take pictures, and we are often giving up our FTT periods to interview students throughout the school.

Tech

The yearbook was carefully designed on Jostens Yearbook Avenue. We used Apple, Asus, and Lenovo computers. For our photographs, we used Canon Rebel T7.

#62

Kirk Essenpreis was a beloved staff member at Highland High School. Kirk was a custodian for many years. However, during his time here, he was much more than a custodian. Kirk made an effort to attend every sporting and musical event as well as every other extra curricular activity. He had more school spirit than anyone else. Even though Kirk is no longer with us, he will forever be loved within our hearts and our school. In Kirk's words, "Once a Bulldog, always a Bulldog."

"My favorite memory was when Kirk surprised his wife Wendy by having the McDonald's characters make an appearance at their wedding reception. He was always putting others before himself."

- Karen Twyford

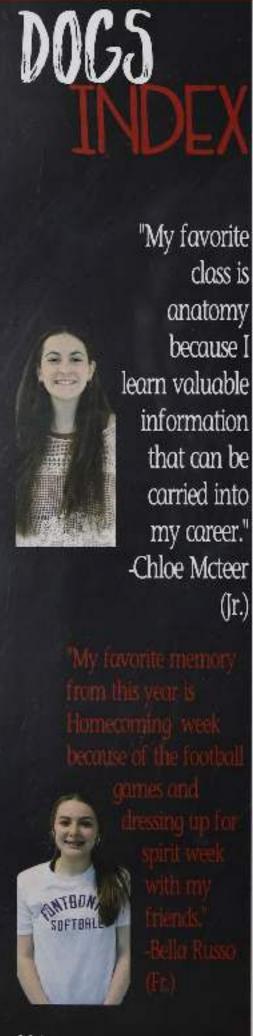

"One of the biggest memories that comes to mind when I think of Kirk is when we recognized him at one of our home football games my junior year. I thought it was really cool that we got to involve him in our athletic events and show him how much he meant to us."

-Brenden Gelly (12)

"What I remember-most about Kirk is his clock-like working style. Every task had a specific time and order. I was always impressed with his ability to remember students' names, even ones that came back later on to visit the school after graduation. At the facilities team Christmas parties, Kirk was always kicking butt at Wii bowling and corn hole, where when teamed up with me, he was in charge of scoring all of our points. When I first started working with Kirk on the night shift, we figured out our birthdays were close. His was on the 5th and mine on the 2nd, so if one of our birthdays fell on a Friday, we would go out after work and buy each other a celebratory Pepsi. I will forever look back fondly on our time working together.' -Nate Braundmeir
