Something for Everyone

The 2001-2002 Highland Middle School yearbook is proudly dedicated to
Mrs. Faye Brown

in recognition of all her hard work and contributions to our school. Her humor, patience, and leadership will be missed.
We wish her the best as she moves onward and upward

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

(COURTESY: WABC)

How did September 11 change you?

"Taught me to be grateful to our country and take more caution on who you should trust"---Anthony Pellock

"Made me appreciate America, and I am proud how we handled the disaster."---Julie Blunt

"I think America is great!"---Tim Morgan

"Talk to strangers"---Sarah Rose

"Showed me that we are lucky in America and not take everything for granted."---Owen Pye

"Upset at first. Respect brother's friends more after September 11. My brother's friends are Muslims from Pakistan."---Jessica Rosinski

"I've been more patriotic since that day."---Anthony Oliveira

"I've been more alert."---Alex Delbert

"It told me that we are never really safe."---Jim Hobbs

"It makes me sad whenever I think about it."---Ryan Huelsmann

"It made me care for other people more."---Allie Reutiman

"It made me think about my country more."---Tonya Gaffner

"I think more about my country."---Marissa Bowman

"It made me realize how lucky I am to have family & friends."---Alyssa Eason

"It made me think more about other people."---Mallory Plocher

(CNN)

A day we will never forget.....

CNN.COM.. "In the first attack, a plane hit the North tower of the World Trade Center in Manhattan shortly before 9:00 am, followed by another plane into the second tower about 20 minutes later. Both towers later collapsed. About an hour later another plane crashed into the Pentagon."

"In the first ever National ground stop of aircraft, all flights nation wide were stopped."

"President Bush called the crashes 'apparent terrorist attacks' and 'a National tragedy.'"

"Students made red, white, and blue yarn bracelets to wear as a symbol of American pride, unity, and compassion for those affected by the attack."---Chris Hartleb
