The gayety and laughter of tyros, the parties and dances and friendly get-togethers of the upper classmen, the admonitions of authority, the seemingly childish pranks of the students, their sobriety and their levity, are all contained within my width, height and breadth. Within my confines are taught the Arts and Sciences, Religion and Morality—all combined to give my products character and citizenship. My somber corridors will ever hail, invite, and welcome the returning Alumnus, the current student—ALL of my children.
With minute care and joyful concern, he showed me the manner of manual toil. He took me to the ballgames, to the fair; he bought me my first fullgrown suit—my first full gown; he helped me to recognize right from wrong; his was the task of making me proud of my heritage; his the pride of the name I do carry; he is the breadwinner, the master of all he surveys, the king of our humble palace, the dispenser of Justice. Thus, I point with dutiful pride and utter the words that are harbored in my Heart .... "that's my POP."

She cradled my rosiness with loving arms, planted a kiss on my cherubic face; she was the one who toiled and sweated to make me presentable to the world at large; of her handiwork, I stand as an example; hers was the power to calm my tears when my dreams were shattered; hers the ability to quell my surging mischievousness; hers the love I would carry forever; hers the plans for my future life; she—consoler, counselor, friend; she—my ideal, example, and leader. To her I bow in humble and loving submission ..... "that's my MOM."

No matter where I turn, no matter what road I take, no matter the goal of all my ambitions, no matter my stature, features or age; there ever stands behind me a guiding spirit. From early childhood, I was filled with aspirations of Faith, Hope, and Charity. My future was shaped and shared in a most intimate of circles. My allegiance rests only in one country, my desires in one aim, my faith in one God, my love and all that I am or ever hope to be in this oneness of my family.

It is no wonder, then, that I join in a chorus of never ending song in dedicating this tome, a mute evidence of my unfailing devotion, to the grandest of all people .... "that's my MOTHER and DAD."

May their reward be boundless in the Heavenly Kingdom.
With this Annual we present the graduates of 1951. To this happy group in the springtime of life we dedicate these pages. With this dedication we also express our gratitude to their sacrificing, loyal, and devoted teachers.

Since the inauguration of our four year high school course in 1930, three hundred and sixty-six have passed the scholastic test and have taken their place in the world. They are graduates of an educational philosophy which fuses the human with the divine. Concomitant with secular growth their school has nurtured in them a refined spiritual development. This secular and spiritual training form the perfect education. The faculty rejoices with these graduates. Like the artist, the poet, the author, view with conplacent satisfaction the product of his hand and mind, so too, the faculty takes pride in the finished efforts of their love and care, the trained minds and souls of those who have received the final honors of their school.

The graduates of 1951 leave their youthful chores and dream world and step into a world of stern reality, struggle, and competition. Their twelve years training has prepared them to be good citizens and standard barers of Christ. It is the hope and prayer of the faculty that each graduate will be in the future years an honor to their parents, their school, and their church.

RICHARD LEBEGUE  "Dick"

As President of the Senior class, and Treasurer of the C.S.M.C., Dick is a leader all around, and as much a whiz in the classroom as he is on the basketball court. He's never to be found without Wick, Mel, or the Chevy. With his affable personality Dick will be a sure success.
JOANN RYAN  "Joanie"

The Queen of Grantfork's social circle, this bright eyed senior is always gay and carefree. Joanie is a great bowling enthusiast and spends many hours perfecting her game. Joanie is an artist on the "Trojan" staff and a loyal supporter of all activities at St. Paul.

WILLIAM KNEBEL  "Bill"

The Duke of the grease-monkeys is also treasurer of the class and President of the C.S.M.C. If you want to find Bill you can look for the Buick, Chevy or the Pick-up. Bill has a twitching left eye which helped in making him the Casanova of the Senior Class. Blondes, basketball, and Buicks takes up his spare moments.
BETTY FRIEDRICH  "Ferd"

Betty's time is divided between pester ing Mary and giggling with Gloria. Thanks to her bounding enthusiasm and Herman's charm, the business men of our fair city were convinced of the advantages of "Trojan" advertising. Ferd loves to laugh and proves it.

KATHRYN PACATTE  "Kathie"

The spark plug of the senior class, Kathie is always to be found where there is fun or work. She is known for her ability to get a dull class jumping by saying the right thing at the wrong time. By the way, look for refuge when she's out cruising in Papa Pacatte's truck, because women drivers are likely to change their minds.
DOLORES JACOBER  "Doli"

Always a leader, Doli finds time for everything. She divides it between dreaming of Grand Haven, working at Seitz and trying to be on time. She's always curious to know if "there's a Lemac in the house", for Doli tries to keep the R.J. Reynolds in Cadillacs and mink. The future looks bright, thanks to her vivacity.

GERALD RINDERER  "Jerry"

Not one to worry, Jerry takes life as it comes. His capacity for spending a quiet evening at home is a rare thing for a senior of '51. Jerry keeps the bicycles in town in operation by his great mechanical skill. He finds time to keep up his school spirit and to spend his Saturday nights with Ivy, Dick, and Mel.
WILLIAM SCHWARTZ "Schwartzie"

Bill's chief interest is...well his second interest is...anyway, he's interested. Schwartzie's little but mighty and his energy knows no bounds. He's an avid TV fan and finds time for everything but assignments. His carefree attitude assures him a wide circle of friends.

PATRICIA O'HARAN "Pat"

Pat has the largest collection of tardy slips of any senior, for though she's not always on time, she always gets there. With Laurie, her constant companion, she builds up the mileage on the truck. Pat's always ready to respond when there is an argument in a class. What's to come...we wish we knew.
JEAN TALLEUR

"Jean"

Jean has vivid red hair and a matching personality. She plans on branching off into the business field, at least for a time. We'll always remember her for her love of dancing and fun. Jean's ambition is to be a model housewife.

JEROME POTTHAST

"Jerry"

Jerry is our hobbyist. He has the largest collection of model cars we've ever seen. He is known for his attraction to red hair, and also as official recorder and operator in speech class. He usually manages to get out of his own recitation so the job proves profitable indeed.
JO ANN McCAIN

"Jo"

Jo is unusual in our class because she is unassuming and minds her own business. She enjoys the creative arts—music, poetry, and writing. The man in her life is a big, dark, secret to her classmates and her known desires lean toward journalism.

CLEMENT KOEHNEMANN

"Clem"

Although Clem appears to be a modest, industrious student, don't let this fool you. He's full of mischief, using Boodley as his partner in crime. Clem's known to be one of the few seniors that observes the speed limit at all times. He enjoys only the normal pursuits of life.
LOUISE OESTRINGER  "Louise"

One of the sweetest temperaments at St. Paul belongs to this fair haired graduate. Her easy-going, co-operative spirit makes her a real asset to the Senior Class. Her life is a mystery to us for Louise keeps her joys and her sorrows to herself. However, we do know she is fond of horses, TV, and the movies.

ROBERT LANDOLT  "Bob"

Alhambra's gift to St. Paul, Bob's rounding out his three years with us as Vice President of the Senior Class. He has slow charm, ready wit and is known as "the best looking boy who eats at Bert's." The nature boy of the class, Bob enjoys riding, hunting, and wearing levis.
Boodley is the good–bad boy of the Senior class. His friendship with Clem is beyond our control, and it does need controlling. Ever present with a witty, if not always welcome comment, he is bound to keep the class in good spirits. Boodley’s future is a question mark to us and we fear to Boodley also.

RITA FREY

Always reliable, Rita is ever willing to help in any way she can. Her lengthy conversations have a way of leaving us dumbfounded. Rita is accomplished in the arts of crocheting, dancing, and typing. Concerned about everything, Rita really enjoys life.
MARY LOYET

Mary just "skips" through life. Being one of the talented artists on the Trojan staff, she is hoping for a career in commercial art. Her primary interests are swimming, sketching, and SEVENTEEN. Mary has a high scholastic ability as well as a pleasing disposition.

ROMAN KORTE

Roman, the shy boy of our noisy seniors, is more seen than heard. He's content to sit back and watch life move on around him. Roman distinguished himself as a scholar at St. Paul. A loyal friend to everyone, his main interests lie in farming and rural life.
URSULA STALLINGS  "Ursula"

A newcomer to the Senior class, Ursula was welcomed by all. She's calm, cool, and collected except in Speech Class. Responding zealously to all school activities has made her a busy student. Although secretive about plans we're sure they hold good fortune.

RUSSEL GIESON  "Russ"

Leaving Tucson behind, Russ joined us in our final year. A welcome addition to our class. He is a likeable fellow with a rather mischievous grin. Along with Kathy, Russ tracked down the sports news for the Trojan. He prefers comfortable clothes and no neckties.
HERMAN POEHLING  "Hoiman"

Hoiman takes all the honors for living the life of Riley. His favorite occupation is lounging on the office floor at school, but he still manages to find time to take care of the advertising details of the "Trojan". He intends to take life easy for the next ten years.

DOLORES FREY  "Laurie"

A quiet little blonde, that is to say to her charming classmates, Laurie has a slow but winning way. Also, she likes to make her own decisions. Columbus may have discovered America in 1492, but Laurie made a bigger discovery in 1949—Granite City!
ADELE KORTE  "Del"
Adele came to us from the great metropolis of Pierron in our Freshman Year. All of Del's skill comes to the fore in shorthand. She'll argue with anyone about anything especially in Democracy Class. Her present life is taken up by Gloria and the Hospital.

LELAND STOFF  "Lee"
Lee has been a mainstay of the basketball squad since junior high. He spends most of his spare moments with his Dad preparing himself for a future in carpentry especially cabinet-making. Lee breezes through school days without a care but don't let this fool you for Lee is a student.
KELVIN FREY

"Mel"

Tall, light and athletic Mel is a "slow" basketball fiend, a sandlot regular, and a shy guy. Without shadow, DL, Mel early collects the local dairy products. He enjoys comic books and the movies and is active in all school functions.

GLORIA LOEBEL

"Glo"

Gloria gives Betty Hutton competition for the title of the blonde bombshell. She is the smallest of the seniors girls but definitely not the least seen or heard. Glo spends class time combing her hair, gazing out the window and gabbing with Del. She was born optimistic.
DOROTHY GEIGER

"Butch"

Anything Dot undertakes she does well. An excellent sports woman and scholar, she is a major asset to the Senior class. She is primarily interested in 4-H and the Navy. Dorothy's pathway points to success. Never missing a thing Butch keeps up with all curricular and extra curricular activities.

DENNIS FREY

"Denny"

The constant companion of Alvin, Denny's main interest in life, outside of the Chevy, is tractors. He has a slow easy-going manner and seems to never have a worry in the world. His long explanations are a trade mark we'll never forget.
ALVIN DAIBER

"Alvin"

Usually quiet, Alvin takes a great interest in school life. His noon hour period is taken up by cruising around town with Denny. Alvin is an authority on farming, tractors, and most phases of rural life. He plans some day to have the best dairy farm in the state.

BERTHA BAER

"Bert"

Through the years Bert has outrun, skipped, and jumped any other member of the Class. She lost out in the "shortest" competition to Gloria by a close margin. Bert devotes her out of school time to St. Joseph's Hospital. A faithful choral member, she was a backbone in the Minstrel chorus, in our Junior Year.
Joining us in our twelfth year, Betty readily fit into the pattern at St. Paul. She is a top-rate student and has a likeable friendliness. Operator 62 knows all the numbers plus a few not in the book. Always optimistic, Betty faces the future with her happy smile.

A friend to one and all, Kathleen joined us in our Junior Year leaving Marine far behind. Her ambition is to work in the Business World, having taken a secretarial course in High School. Her time is spent gabbing with Betty in study hall and taking life easy.
WILLIAM OBERBECK  "Bill"

Bill is one of the most popular members of the Senior Class. By nature he's an optimistic fellow with the friendliest grin at St. Paul. Bill, who is enthusiastic about all extracurricular activities, is a staunch supporter of the basketball team and has the loudest voice of anyone in the cheering section.

MARIE WOLZ  "Sig"

Marie lives for the future. She is of the opinion that Wick roadmen are tops especially one. She is one of the better Box Office attractions at the Lory. Knowing a little bit about a lot of things, Marie can be at home in any situation. Fun-loving Sig has one gripe: no one will trust her with his car.
THOMAS MERSINGER  "Tom"

Curly-haired Tom is one fellow who always accepts a dare or takes a chance. His night life is rather extensive centering on Main Street between Laurel and Walnut. Concerning athletics, Tom shuns the gym floor but gets adequate exercise on any dance floor. He wends a wicked right.

MARY ANN BELL  "Annie"

Annie's quiet but charming personality has won for her the friendship of everyone at St. Paul. She's a good sport and always ready to lend a helping hand. Annie dotes on books and movies and is especially interested in nursing. We wish her all the luck in the world.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1951, being of sound mind, after considerable thought and meditation, and by the witness of God and men, do hereby proclaim to all, our last will and testament, bequeathing our few treasured earthly benefits and possessions; namely:

To the faculty, our ingenuity for doing the right thing at the wrong time and our sincere gratitude for their spiritual guidance and interest in our present and future welfare.

To the Juniors our best wishes for a successful senior year and for as much fun as we had during ours.

To the Sophomores the intelligence and high conduct marks of the unequaled seniors.

To the Freshmen our ability to keep the school in constant turmoil.

Senior Class
To some day-dreaming is profitable; to others a waste of time. The other day I took an opportunity to waste a few minutes and looked into the future to see what my classmates of '51 were doing. Some succeeded in the business world, others in sports and some felt content to settle down. It seemed that St. Paul had added on to its wonderful grade and high school a college which had already gained fame for its superb basketball team under the able and adaptable coaching of Lee Stoff. As Lee was coaching his team to victory one of his players got a charlie horse so the teams pretty and conscientious nurse was called to administer to the distressed forward; she was none other than Mary Ann Bellm R.N., graduate of St. John Nursing School. Also at St. Paul University was Rita Frey, head of the Music Department.

My mind was blank for a brief second when across the blue horizon a 23 passenger airplane landed at the Highland Municipal Airport owned and operated by Herman Poehling. As the cockpit was opened a young handsome pilot emerged, wearing that same smile of St. Paul days. It was Bill Knebel and close behind him was Bob Landolt. The passengers were being helped from the plane by two sweet hostesses—Joan Ryan and Adele Korte. But alas, there seemed to be a crowd of reporters gathered about the next plane as if some one of great importance had arrived. I spied in the crowd Kathie Pacatte, ace reporter for the Highland Chronicle, edited by the famous newspaperman, Russ Gieson. JoAnn McCain was chief reporter for the society page of Russ' paper. From the plane stepped Admiral Jerry Rinderer, one of the top men of the U.S. Navy. After the crowd had thinned I noticed the mechanic working on Bill's plane; he was Jerome Potthast. As I was going over to talk to Jerome a newsboy, Walter Orlet, was crying the latest news: Pat O'Haran, John Powers famous model, was in town. Talking to Jerome I learned that Rich Lebegue had just won his 20th game pitching... for the St. Louis Cardinals, now owned by Bill Oberbeck and Bill Schwarz. Guess who were their pop corn vendors, why else but Betty Friedrich and Mary Loyet. The Cards had been playing their old rivals, The Bums, who had as their star shortstop Mel Frey.

Having business with Illinois' new Congresswoman Kathleen Voegele, I proceeded to the waiting room of the airport to call her at Washington D.C. When I asked for Operator 62 an old familiar voice welcomed me—it was Betty Sedlacek. Kathleen informed me that Dennis Frey, a prosperous farmer in New York, was now appearing before Congress in behalf of the Daiber Bill proposed by Senator Alvin Daiber of Illinois.

Doli Jacober was topping the best seller lists with her new platter "Hey Kid I Need Some Help", written by one of our musicians, Marie Wolz, now playing with a famed band. Also out in Hollywood, but a great name in lights is Lauri Faraday, known to us as Laurie Frey. Laurie's private secretary is Ursula Stallings; she also has her own dress designer, Louise Oestringer but known to the fashion world as Madame Sophie.

Tom Mersinger was a successful lawyer in St. Morgan, having just succeeded in winning a case for his client, Clem Koehnemann who had been charged with evasion of income tax. The foreman for the jury was Jean Talleur.

Bertha Baer was now head dietitian at the St. Joseph's Hospital while Roman Korte had become a skilled doctor in the field of plastic surgery. All of his patients were greeted by his attractive office nurse Gloria Loebel.

Well folks, this is all of my reminiscing, it seems that all the students of the class of '51 were pretty successful. What about me? I'm still daydreaming, as usual.

Halloween Party

Ghosts and goblins roamed the school on the evening of October 30, when the Juniors entertained with their bewitching display of horrors. Along with the horror house, fascinating skits of Halloween helped to make the party successful. After refreshments, everyone showed their skill in square dancing.

Thanksgiving Party

The Sophomore Class was not to be outdone as proved by their skill in giving a Thanksgiving Party for the school. Mr. and Mrs. Pilgrim (Toots Korte and Tommy Frey) presided over the gala affair. Games were played and refreshments served. Our favorite records provided music for dancing which was enjoyed by all present.

Christmas Hop

The main attraction of the year was the annual Christmas Hop given by the seniors. The theme "Silver Bells" inspired a real Christmas Spirit. Glittering bells and shining snow presented a beautiful background as the happy couples danced on the floor to the delightful strains of Walt Schlemmer and his Orchestra. It was well attended by students, alumni and friends of St. Paul High School.

The successful 1951 basketball season was highlighted by the Homecoming held on January 23. The TROJANS played a thrilling game and won over St. Dominic High School of Breese by a score of 52-27. After the game the Coronation Ceremonies began. The basketball team chose Doli Jacober as the 1951 Homecoming Queen, who was escorted to her throne by Captain Richard Lebegue. Her maids of honor were escorted to the Coronation by the other varsity members of the team. Doli succeeded Geraldine Isert who was Queen of the 1950 Ceremonies. The evening was brought to a close by a Coronation Dance with music by Paul Talleur and his Orchestra.
