The 1962 VIKING

Vol. XVII
ST. PAUL HIGH SCHOOL
Highland, Illinois
The joy of your graduation is shared by those who helped you most to achieve it, your parents, your teachers-and your priests. Be grateful and show yourselves worthy of their sacrifice and love, labor and prayer. Accept your personal responsibility now to give a good account of your faith, upbringing and training. Remember it is for your eternal life in Heaven your Catholic education prepares you as well as for a successful happy life on earth.
Congratulations to the Class of 1962. As you walk up the aisle to receive your diploma you will have the good wishes of your teachers. We hope most of you will continue with your education. If not, bring into your life's vocation the Catholic training you have received at St. Paul's the past twelve years. With you goes the honor of your parents and your school. The ingredients of success are hard work, perseverance, and sacrifice. Have a desire and determination to succeed.

Your future now depends on you. May God be with you always.

Father John Moore

Father Moore spent the past four years as assistant pastor at St. John’s Parish in Carrollton. During the first four years of his priestly life he was stationed at St. Boniface Parish in Edwardsville. Here at St. Paul’s he teaches Religion II. He also has charge of the Immaculate Conception Parish at Pierron.

Mr. Maurice (Moe) Klingele

Mr. Klingele is the coach and athletic director of St. Paul High. He served as grade school coach during the 1957-58 season. In 1958-59 he was athletic director and coach at St. Mary’s Academy in Mt. Sterling, and for the past two seasons he has been assistant basketball coach at Pittsfield High. Besides his coaching duties Mr. Klingele teaches General Science, Earth Science, and Sociology.
RICHARD JACOBER, of the Class of '63, was highly regarded by both students and faculty. His friendliness, honesty, and integrity made him an all-American boy. As a varsity basketball player his sportsmanship and ability was an example to teammates and opponents alike. His accidental death July 6, 1961, was a loss to all. To his memory, we dedicate this 1962 VIKING.

A Record —

The Junior Class has an enviable record of “Firsts.” They placed first in the Magazine Drive, captured the intramural basketball trophy, listed five members on the first-semester Honor Roll, and had eleven competing in the National Merit Scholarship Exam.

With room 104 as their homeroom and Sister Mary Paul as their advisor, the Juniors pursued such courses as: Religion, English, American History, Bookkeeping, Typing, Shorthand, Algebra 11, Physics, Earth Science, Chorus, and Physical Education.

The Sophomores claimed room 10 as their homeroom and Sister Marie Pauline as their advisor. Catholic Youth Week activities were organized and successfully carried out by a hard-working, determined Sophomore committee. Of the five Sophs who placed on the first-semester Honor Roll, two were straight "A" students. The Continentals earned second place trophy in the intramural basketball contest and had three of their players named to the All Star team.

Religion, English, Biology, Plane Geometry, World History, Latin, General Business, Behind-the-wheel Driver Training, Chorus, and Physical Education were pursued by the Sophomores this year.
"United we stand – divided we’re stuck."

Catholic Youth Week Slogan
Sister Jolantha, Freshman advisor in room 200, and Sister Maurice Marie in room 203 welcomed fifty-two Freshmen to St. Paul High. After being duly initiated by the class of '62, the recruits pursued "higher learning" in Religion, English, Latin, General Science, Civics, Algebra, General Mathematics, Chorus, and Physical Education. The Falcons won the third place trophy in the annual St. Paul High basketball intramurals. Five Freshmen placed on the first-semester Honor Roll.

The Sophomores learn more about their Faith during the sixth period from Father John Moore. Father came to St. Paul's from St. John's Parish in Carrollton.

The new music teacher is Sister Marie Pauline. Chorus classes were moved to the multipurpose room because of the grade school expansion program. Sister also teaches English to the Freshies.

Mr. Maurice Klingele joined the St. Paul High School faculty as athletic director and teacher. Here he is instructing the Juniors in Earth Science, a new subject added in '62. Also new are the drapes!
Lois Stoff and Nancy Smith, student reporters, are presenting the first copy of the VIKAN to their English teacher, Sister Jolantha. Looking on is Richard Luchtefeld, the chairman of the Viking Club Tickets. The VIKAN is a quarterly bulletin of St. Paul High School and St. Paul High School Alumni Association.

Juniors Jerry Goestenkors, Tom Korte, and Bob Donnelly are sporting their new P.E. uniforms. Jerry and Bob are admiring the new St. Sebastian, Patron of Sports, sign on the door of the remodelled locker room.

The Seniors were welcomed back in September by Sister M. Meldon, their homeroom teacher. Senior homeroom 204 was furnished with new draperies, and new desks.
Sister Mary Paul looks on as Luke Thoele explains to Ralph Koch the way to operate the analog computer. After participating in a Summer Institute for Teachers of Mathematics at St. Louis University, Sister Mary Paul introduced the Modern Algebra course for the Freshmen.

Geography—another new for the class of ’62. With the new MAPS Sister Maurice Marie makes this subject quite interesting. Have maps, will travel!

The eight cheerleaders for the season 1961-62 were elected in May. For the first time in the history of St. Paul they attended a Cheerleading Camp at Normal University June 25-30, 1961. They returned with a new spirit, with new cheers, and with new themes for pep rallies. See pages 48 and 49 for identification.
September 5—Opening Day

The 1961-62 scholastic year opened with Holy Mass in honor of the Holy Spirit. During the year the High School Mass was offered at 11:30.

Mr. Leonard Wessel, our new janitor, does a tremendous job keeping the school clean. His dependability and pleasantness provide good example for all.

Freshies, Pat Brasil and Kay Widmer, pay high school tuition for the first time to Father Auda. Tuition is collected every Monday at noon.

Delicious meals are prepared in a newly renovated kitchen by Mrs. Clara Tebbe and Mrs. Pearl Ammann, our new cooks. New menus, new trays, new chili bowls, and new chairs add to a new cafeteria atmosphere.
Members of the Senior High Court look approvingly while the lowly Freshies carry out their "sentences."

"Don't tell me I'll have to cancel my Saturday appointment at Kay's Kut 'n Kurl!"

"I always act this way when I go to the Freshman Initiation."

September 21 — Student Council Installation

"You Senior boys are so-o romantic . . ."

"Oh, Kenny, for a Senior you say such sweet things . . ."

At the Student Council Installation, Monsignor Whalen presented badges to the Officers and Representatives. Kenny Hengehold, master of ceremonies, reflects that this was the first time that badges were given to Student Council members at St. Paul High.
September 24 — Farewell Party

The Farewell Party for Father Robert Meyer took place Sunday September 24. The young and old wished Father Meyer the best for years to come. He is now stationed at St. Peter’s in Quincy, Illinois. Father is from St. Peter and Paul Parish in Collinsville. His ministry here at St. Paul’s the past four years could be summed up with the words, “Well done, good and faithful servant ...”

September 25 — Senior Ring Ceremony

On the evening of September 25, Monsignor Whalen presented to the Seniors their class rings in a ceremony at St. Paul’s Church. Benediction was given by Father Robert Meyer. After the ceremony the parents of the Seniors, the faculty, and the student body met in the assembly room to congratulate the Seniors. A dance followed sponsored by the Freshmen.

September 28 — Chalk Talk

Mr. Neal Thompson, our Taylor Publishing Company representative, informs the VIKING yearbook staff of the latest in yearbook planning. His help and interest are highly appreciated by the staff.
September 28 — Senior Servers

September 29 — Library Guild

The Senior and Junior Library Guild members take time out to browse through the new books and current magazines.

September 30 — Hayride

The hayride sponsored by the Seniors terminated at the John Wellen farm for a wiener roast. The tractor pictured below returned at 12:15 due to the fact that it got stuck in the mud.

October 8 — Fall Frolic

The music for the "Fall Frolic" dance was furnished by a 12-piece orchestra of the Local Musicians Union.

October 22 — Decatur

October 25 — Magazine Drive

The Catholic Digest Magazine Drive was held from October 8 through October 25. Bill Basler, student chairman, congratulates Mike Duffin ($115) and Ed Collins ($109), top sellers. The Junior class came out on top with 154%. Rosaleen Kelly ($107) and Elizabeth Petri ($105) were high sellers also. Seniors Mary Ann Schwarz and Emily Knebel did an "honest" job as sales managers.
Monday—After Holy Mass a breakfast followed served by the Sophomores. The guest speaker was Father John Moore.

Tuesday—At the assembly Mr. Julius Spindler spoke on responsibility. An excerpt from his talk is the following: We’re writing a Gospel, a chapter each day, By the deeds that we do and the words that we say. People read what we write whether falsehood or true, Say, what is the Gospel according to you?

Wednesday—An address given by Father John Spreen was followed by Benediction and a living Rosary.

Thursday—Clicks, bad language, and welcoming newcomers were discussed by Monica Pothast, Sarah Engle, Ed Collins, Sharon Bellm, Bob Hill, Frank Koishor, and Father Ryan at the Panel Discussion.

Friday—Dance with a Halloween twist given by the Sophomores.

Every BODY Welcome?
The music for the theme dance, FLAT 'N SHARP was furnished by J.C. and the Key-Tones from Collinsville. Modern art designs, mobiles, and revolving colored lights were part of the decorations.

November 14 — P.T.C.

The annual Parent-Teacher Conferences were held on the evenings of November 14, 15, 16. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bellim are evidently recipients of "good news." The second semester conferences were conducted March 5, 6, 7
November 15 — State Inspection

The Inspectors from the State Office in Springfield visited the morning classes and departments at St. Paul High on Nov. 15. The grade school was visited in the afternoon.

Checking the details on their biology projects for the Inspection are Lou Ellen Gnaedinger, Donna Klaus, and Rosaleen Kelly.

Working to meet the History project deadline are Ron Huelsman, Barbara Walter, and Dennis Walter.

November 19 — School Carnival

Sister Salvadore, Pat Engle, and Marilyn Bellm are getting the prizes ready for the Igloo booth.

Tom Jacober helps Father Auda adjust his aprons, dolls, guns, etc., etc., etc.
December 2 — Retailers’ Promotion Day

On December 2 several Highland stores contributed part of the day’s sales to the St. Paul Athletic Association. Organizing the group of high school workers for the Day are Father Ryan, Dwight Frey, Mary Ann Schwarz, and Monica Potthast.

December 5 — First Game

December 5 was designated as Rich Jacober Night. The new trophy case was dedicated in his honor. The Vikings won the game from Cathedral of Belleville 62-53.

December 20 — Caroling

December 22 — Christmas Assembly

The Chorus entertained with Christmas carols at the Edwardsville Sanitarium, the Alhambra Hitz Home, and the Highland Old Folks Home. The Band played at the Sanitarium on December 21.

The Senior girls anxiously await the announcement of the maids for the Homecoming Court at the annual Student Council sponsored Christmas assembly.
December - Basketball Season

The new bleachers for the stage in the gym were installed Dec. 1. Two hundred fifty more basketball fans can now be admitted.

Pep rallies boosted school spirit (and school insurance). New cheers and actions were displayed by the cheerleaders. A variety of skits provided interesting and peppy rallies. Among the skits were "The Viper," "The Injured (Triad) Player," and a radio broadcast.

The 1961-62 basketball season was the first year for the Pep Bus to transport loyal Viking fans. Bus tickets for twelve games were sold at $4.25.

Varsity Cheerleaders

January 17-18-19 — Retreat

Reverend Jerome Datko, O.M.I., conducted the January retreat for the High School students. Some of his timely suggestions were:

- What you will be ten years from now—
  You are now becoming!
- What is my Achilles heel?
- What is God's attitude toward venial sins? Look what happened to Moses, to Ananias and Saphira . . .

January 22 — Second Semester

February 17—Homecoming

The 1962 Homecoming, "Enchanted Evening," was held in the St. Paul High gym February 17. Walt Schlemer and his orchestra furnished the music.
