TO OUR TOWN
Our Shepherds need your loyalty
The tragic and untimely death of the late John F. Kennedy, the 35th president of the United States, is and will be a constant reminder of the repetition of history.

He was a man of brilliance of mind, forceful determination and great personal charm. His courage, in war and peace, is unquestioned. John F. Kennedy, as a president and a citizen, lived by the words he spoke, “Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country.”

In the President we had a man whom we could hold up to our youth at all times and he was a living example of the “vigor” which he demanded of youth. He had a “way” with youth, they loved him and they knew that he loved them.

May He Rest In Peace!

FIELD DAY
"Oh, ya shouldn't 've!"

"They said to make myself at home!"

"Just what I needed!"
As witnesses for Christ to the uttermost parts of the earth...

... you are a branch of that vine which is Christ...

... to stand alone to fight for and defend your convictions and beliefs.
... you need His constant presence through prayer and the sacraments. -- You in turn are the external expression of Christ in the world.

It needs desperately men and women of dedication and purpose . . .

These excerpts were taken from the commencement address given by Father Thomas Feldman.
