The importance of hands is indefinable. Hands create, unite, guide, comfort, achieve, and bless.

THEIR hands are busy hands. THEIR hands are always active in the attempt to prepare us to successfully use our own. THEIR hands aid spirit!
The spirit of these people produced the '68 Viking because many hands make light work on the production of our annual. The salesmanship of those pictured at the right cleared the financial path.

Layout calls for ingenuity, perseverance, and lots of hard work. The juniors, pictured in the center of the page, and seniors, at left bottom, display school spirit by their response to a staff S.O.S.

Legion of Mary

Sing to lift one's spirit, create a spirit, and contrast spirits. The spirit of song is reflected in the minds, the hearts, and the voices of those who sing.
The chorus presented two concerts in the course of the school year. An informal Christmas concert was performed for the enjoyment of the student body, and a formal spring concert on May 19 featured a selection of songs from the musical, "The King and I" - our musical finale for the year!
Formed under the direction of Sister Mary Ann and Father Dodd, the Small Society folk singing group made its debut early in the school year and has since performed many times. The Society sings both secular and religious selections, and includes several solos as well as group numbers in its programs. The folk singers are noted for their warm, friendly smiles and youthful spirit!

"There's music in the air"

Band director: Sister Mary Ann

Band
A little bit of SPIRIT accomplishes a mighty big job!
Their smiles are prompted by a SPIRIT of satisfaction. They generously give of their time to perform a service that will affect their fellow students.
Y.C.S. Teen Seminar — March 31, 1968

An experience in sharing with more than just our school.

GUEST SPEAKERS:
Rev. Edward Christ
Rev. Stanley Roth

Sharing - the Eucharist

Sharing - discussion of "David and Lisa,"

Sharing - a pot luck supper.

Sharing - evening's climax - a dance in our gym.

Activities

Monfort Singers led students in first hootenanny of season.

Mat Dance - May 4, music by Mo's Brew-ery.

Everyone, though different in his own way, became one at the Happening, November 3. A time to share the true spirit of "togetherness" through unique communications: slides, dance, music, recordings, films, opaque projections, tapes, posters - to mention just a few.

Talent Show

Sponsored by Legion of Mary. It was a "first" that will long be remembered. Few of us realized the wealth of "native" talent in our midst. Unity of spirit - Christmas spirit - a spirit of giving - inspired this show, the first of its kind in our school.

1st place winners: S. Dickman, S. Kula, M. Kienstra, T. Watts, K. Durbin.

SINGERS - M. Frisse, C. Potthast

February, 1968

Welcome, Mr. Hess!

Faculty shortage temporarily abated by arrival of Mr. John Hess, new English II teacher and study hall monitor! Never a dull moment for Mr. Hess as students will testify having witnessed his spirit and cooperation as chaperone at all school dances and other social functions, his indefatigable spunk at "clean up" day as well as his organizational and athletic abilities at Field Day - to mention but a few examples!
Awarded athletic letters to Spring baseball players. Most memorable game of season and a real boost to school spirit - victory over Highland High.

Days of Renewal

March 19 and 20

As the two days of spiritual renewal draw to a close, the priests responsible for executing the program pause for a moment. They are: Fathers Robert Dodd, Charles Stang, James Warosh, Robert Power, James Baker, and Paul Skelton. "Community" was the major theme of the renewal. Discussion groups and participation Masses contributed significantly to the development of the theme.

Through the Looking Glass with Alice on November 11, 1967 for the annual THEME dance.

A royal scene deep within the tropics ... the wave of palm leaves, a trickling waterfall, the call of a multi-colored birds of paradise, and of course the giant Tiki combine to complete the exotic picture of treasured happiness.
Gracious curtsies and warm, friendly smiles welcome the audience to the noted isles of beauty, mystery, and romance.

Graduation

May 26, 1968

Diplomas were awarded to Seniors by Msgr. Whalen.

Top honors to Valedictorian Jan Luber, Salutatorian Rita Hill.

Since Father C. Olshefsky instructed these students during their grade school days and functioned as diocesan vocation director to St. Paul's during the past year, it seemed fitting he deliver the seniors' commencement address.
"Follow Christ and love the world as He did . . ." sang the seniors as their last message to us at St. Paul's. For this advice and their work and example of the past four years, they deserved the hearty congratulations of friends and relatives.

Liturgical celebration offered by Father Dodd. Symbols of their student life and gifts were presented at the offering - a book, a world, the bread and wine.
Sponsored 2 dinners: December, Turkey dinner and March, Roast Beef dinner.
