Dedication

We would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Donald Litteken--better known as 'Lite'. You've inspired us to be what we are. Thanks, we'll never forget you. Through good times and bad ones too, you were always with us.

My fellow Americans............

We may never pass this way again.
School officially opened for the 1975-76 school year on August 26. On the first day an assembly was held. The entire student body and faculty were present as we prayed together to God asking Him for a successful school year. The Warning-Detention System and the new library procedures were explained. The first few days of school were often dismissed early because of the heat. Our lives were coming back to the familiar routine once school was in full swing. Our weekends were spent either at the show, at dances at Expo, or just cruisin' around town.

In mid-September, Mr. Voegele came to school and took pictures of the underclassmen. One smile was worth a thousand laughs. The Seniors received their rings on the 14th of September and on the following Friday the "Frosh" were initiated.
The Seniors made their big decision in October—FLORIDA OR BUST! GAA held their first major activity, a campout at Pere Marquette State Park. The Cross Country team finished a very successful season in late October. Dot tests were taken by the underclassmen on the 21st. The first high school newspaper, "SPIRIT" was published by the senior class. On Halloween, Mark Capelle, a member of the Cross Country team entered into state competition. November came with many hopes and expectations for the Homecoming, which was extremely successful. On the 6th our parents picked up our first quarter report cards. The Seniors were given Senior Privilege: they could leave school at 2:30, if they had no classes. A Pop Concert was held the day before Thanksgiving. The snow made our holiday seem like the traditional ones.
December was finally here. Most of our time was spent in preparation for Christmas. Our evenings were busy with, homework, basketball games, and shopping. A Christmas Band Concert was held on the 14th. The faculty gave the students their Christmas present on the 21st--no classes, instead we watched "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea." We spent a snowy Christmas at home with our families and Santa Claus. Everyone got together again at the Mater Dei Tournament to support our Vikings.

We May Never Pass This Way Again

On January 5th we returned to school. It snowed and school was cancelled for the next two days. The Wesclin Tournament was held the same week that we had our exams. In late January it was announced that the "King and I" would be this year's musical and tryouts were held the following week.
School progressed--February was here and the second semester began. It continued to snow and we continued to get off of school. February was a busy month. The entire student body saw the "King and I" and "1776". Two of the St. Louis Soccer Stars gave an assembly on soccer techniques. Our Student Council exchanged students with Wesclin. A major epidemic hit the school--teachers as well as students were struck with spring fever. The art department entered several exhibits at the SIU Art Contest. On February 24th the Vikings played their last basketball game at the Triad Regionals.

I Wanna Cry If It Makes It Worth While
I May Never Pass This Way Again
That's Why I Want It With You.

The height of the month of March was the school musical. The cast's and crew's long hours of practice made "The King and I" a haunting success. Mid-March was the beginning of the 4th and final quarter of the year. It was frightening for many and joy to a few. An Effic dance on the 12th reunited everyone for an evening of excitement. Members of the art department took a field trip to SIU-E to view art exhibits.
April Fool's Day—report cards were given out. Easter Vacation began on Friday the 16th. The five days off were appreciated by the students as well as the teachers. The beautiful Spring weather allowed for kite-flying, tennis, bicycling, and laziness. In late April the H.S. Band went on tour in St. Louis. April ended with S.C. Week.

And You're The Journey's End.
I May Never Pass This Way Again
That's Why I Want It With You.
May was a busy month, especially for the Seniors. Time passed more quickly than many of us had anticipated. Of course the school year would not have been complete without the traditional events; such as the Prom, Band and Choral Concert, Jr.-Sr. Party, Recognition Dinner, Senior Class Trip, and Graduation. When these special activities were over and the school year was at a close, it appeared as if things weren't ending--they were only just beginning.

We May Never Pass This Way Again.

Dear Graduates of 1976,

For you who will never pass the way of high school days again, I extend this heartfelt prayer:
I pray that the time you spent at St. Paul High School trekking through the halls, up and down the stairs, in and out of rooms, searching, studying, socializing—the time you spent with PEOPLE—your teachers, your fellow classmates—has become the cornerstone of your life.

As you realize each new day that you may never pass the way of the coming day again, may your days at St. Paul enable you to resolve to take time:

to pray, because prayer is the greatest source of power;
to love and be loved, because loving is a God-given privilege;
to be friendly, because friendliness is the road to happiness;
to read, because reading is the foundation of wisdom;
to give, because the day is too short to be selfish;
to work, because working is the price of success;
to be kind, because kindness is the key to heaven;
to play, because playing is the secret of perpetual youth; and to laugh, because laughter is the music of the soul.

With a sincere love and concern for each of you in Christ,

COACH, WHEN YOU LEAD YOUR TEAM IN PRAYER BEFORE A GAME, DO YOU EVER PRAY FOR A VICTORY?

OF COURSE NOT, JOHN!

WE PRAY FOR A HUMILIATING DEFEAT FOR THE OTHER TEAM!

FUNKY WINKERBEAN

CAN YOU SEE WHAT THE SCORE IS, CANDY?

UH... HOME, SIXTEEN... VISITORS, TWELVE!

DIDN'T WE PLAY VISITORS LAST WEEK?
St. Paul ended the season this year with 10 loses, 1 win, and 1 tie in dual meet. Their invitational record was 74 wins, 47 loses, and 1 tie.

At the Wesclin Invitational, St. Paul took a 3rd place tie. In the Granite City North Invitational, the team took 17th while in our own invitational they took 2nd. In the Triad Invitational, St. Paul captured 15th place but came back and took a 1st in the Flora Invitational. St. Paul then took 4th at Highland and 7th at Waterloo and then finished the season with a 6th place at the Edwardsville District.

The team did a terrific job this year and everyone hopes that they can keep up the good work and do just as good next year.

Cross Country

Mark Capelle who was a sophomore, was the first male athlete of St. Paul to ever advance to State Competition in any sport. He helped the team to accomplish their record of 10-1-1.

In the District meet at SIUE Campus, Mark finished fifth with a time of 16:13 which helped him to go to the State Meet in Peoria where he finished 146. He helped himself to get to State by finishing second in the Freshman-Sophomore Cross Country Invitational. He also finished first in a few Cross Country meets which helped him get stronger and better.

In the beginning of the season Mark was not the top runner for St. Paul, but as the season went on, Mark gradually improved himself to become number one over the top runner for St. Paul.

If Mark does just as good of a job next year as he did this year, Mark may just have another shot at State Competition. Everyone will be backing Mark next year.

Girl's Soccer

The girl's soccer team ended the season this year with 7 wins, 7 loses, and 1 tie. The team took 2nd place in the YMCA BI-COUNTY Conference. Cindy Zobrist and Suzy Timmermann led the team in scoring.

The old pep talk.

A tense moment during the game.

Freshmen Basketball

The Freshmen basketball team should be congratulated for their spectacular season. Their hard work allowed them an 11-4 season.
Despite the disappointing record, the Junior Varsity looks forward to a good 76-77 season. The vigorous action and spirit of the team made basketball always exciting.

Girl’s Track

Following the Capelle tradition.

The St. Paul Girls’ Track Team defeated Marquette, Okawville, Granite City South, Central, and had a moral victory over Highland High. Although young, the team had a strong year with much improvement: ten school records were broken. The team included six seniors, eight sophomores, and seven freshmen.

Boy's Track

Track was definitely the Viking sport for the 1975-76 season. The entire team was ready at all time to place in their respective events.

Mark Capelle placed 2nd in the State Meet Two Mile time was 4:22.59.
With only four seniors on the team, the underclassmen received much experience on the field. Even though this year's Viking Baseball record was not fantastic, they hope to come back next year with a winning team.

This year's Student Council was very successful and can pride itself in a long list of achievements, including a Student Lounge in Room 21 complete with soda machine and foosball tables, establishing the library as silent study, a student exchange with Wesclin, and a Christmas gift to the faculty. In addition to the tradition of sponsoring the Homecoming, the Council used its funds at the end of the year to give the student body a prom.

Two Seniors, Pat Marti and Ann Seitz participated in the Early Admissions program at SIU-Edwardsville. During the Fall Quarter they took Modern Challenges in Psychology. In the winter session Pat took United States Constitution and Ann studied Statistics. Both found SIU a unique and worthwhile experience.

One year of hard work can produce a successful yearbook packed with pictures and copy. Each Monday and Tuesday after school the yearbook staff met, trying to make this book the best ever. We enjoyed it, and we can definitely say it was well worth the time. We may never pass this way again, but we'll always be able to remember it. A special thanks to our advisors Mrs. Fullenkamp and Mr. Bank.

Christy Talleur and Dan Gruenenfelder were awarded free yearbooks for selling the most ads and patrons.

LET'S HEAR A BIG CHEER OUT THERE FOR THE OLD RED, YELLOW AND BLUE!

AND IT'S DRIVING ME CRAZY!!
On Sunday, September 14, we, the Class of '76 received our rings. It was a very momentous occasion in our lives. When we received these rings of fidelity, we became full-fledged Seniors in the eyes of God, faculty, parents, and our friends. To make this occasion even more special, it was on this date that Elizabeth Ann Seton, the first American saint was canonized.

To the words of "Let It Be", "He Ain't Heavy" and "Around and Around" our class was united for the first time as SENIORS and entered into the "Spirit of '76".
I'm not going first, you go!

Friday, September 19, marked the day the Class of '79 officially became Freshmen through the High Almighty Senior Court. Each Senior became a big brother or sister to a Freshman on the Monday before, and all week the Freshmen were watched over. Each Senior gave his/her little brother or sister a list of clothes to wear to school on Friday. The "Frosh" were really cute in flippers, cowbells, army boots, pony tails, and mis-matched fashions. What sacrifices the "Frosh" (and Seniors!) endured to become part of the tradition of St. Paul.

Initiation

I am a green, mealy mouthed frosh, am an indigent myriad, am wholly dependent upon the great scholars and athletes, the mentally and physically perfect bodies of those 54 incorrupt, magnanimous, benevolent wonders who so modestly call themselves Seniors. I know that the 12 labors of Hercules were trifling compared to the frequent exercitations and drudgery my Senior benefactors have undertaken. Therefore, by the blushes of Aurora and the music of Memnon, I do hereby warrant that I shall pay true and unadulterated homage to them so that I may gain admittance to the Elysium of the Seniors.

Cheese! Where's the stop sign? Elvis, eat your heart out!

Highlights Of The Evening
Homecoming preparation began in late October. The theme was "Journey to the Center of Time". Light blue, green and pink were the colors; and Tatoo was the band. Mistress and Master of Ceremonies were Sue Geiger and Steve Kloss. A few changes were made this year; the underclassmen became involved in an Honor Guard with four freshmen and four sophomores. A romantic touch was added when tables were placed upstairs. "Journey to the Center of Time" was enjoyable as well as profitable. Congratulations Michele and Rich!

The St. Paul High School Band under the guidance of Sr. Pamela Holmes presented two concerts for the general public. The band also toured St. Louis. The winter concert was given on Dec. 14. Some selections were: "Winter Wonderland", "Pink Panther", "Carol of the Drum", and "Peter Gunn Theme". In late April the band performed at St. Andrew's Grade School and Villa Gesu in St. Louis. On Sunday, May 2, the High School Band gave their Spring concert.

Two concerts were held during the year. Various numbers were performed, such as: "Seasons in the Sun", "A Doodlin' Song", "An Old Fashioned Love Song", "Let There Be Peace on Earth", "Sunshine on My Shoulders", and "The Exodus Song". A special thanks is extended to the Freshmen Chorus and their "Senior Salute". As part of the salute, the Freshmen sang, "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother".

Each week the entire student body attended Mass offered by Msgr. Wiskirchen or Father Beveridge, assisted by Father Mark Dodson, Deacon. Freshmen attended Mass on Monday mornings and on Thursday mornings the rest of the high school attended. Individual students were asked to participate as lector, song leader, or member of the offertory procession. On Wednesday, November 12, Bishop Joseph A. McNicholas officiated the Mass. In his homily he urged us to pattern our own lives after Christ’s.

Son Of A Gun, We Had A Good Time!
Graduation

On Thursday, May 27, the Class of 1976 graduated from St. Paul High School in Highland, Illinois, at 8:00. The sky was overcast, but our spirits were far from gloomy. Sunshine was gleaming in our eyes even though we knew that 'we may never pass this way again'.

Hold the applause, please.
It was the best of times,
It was the worst of times,
It was the age of wisdom,
It was the age of foolishness,
It was the epoch of belief,
It was the season of darkness,
It was the spring of hope,
It was the winter of despair,
We had everything before us,
We had nothing before us.
--Charles Dickens

Don't loose it, it's the only one we have.

Fine job, my boy, fine job!
I woke up and looked at my calendar. The day was May 27, 2001. I could barely perceive the importance of this infamous day. Way down on the planet earth, as well as here on the moon, people were celebrating the annexation of the moon as the 51st state of the union. It almost reminded me of the U.S. Bicentennial ballihou with all its commemorative coins, socks, pens, t-shirts, etc., etc., etc., back in 1976. Among the greatest celebrations of that year, I remembered the one the day the Seniors graduated back at St. Paul High. That had been twenty-five years ago and for the first time I wondered if the class really was as successful as the politicians had promised to make it.

I thought I'd get on down to earth and see just what was happening. No sooner had I boarded the first flight to earth, when I was greeted by Senior Stewardess, Cindy Zobrist, who orientated me on some of the things I might find the rest of the class doing. Cheryl Kampwerth, she said, had been offered the position of executive secretary at St. Paul Parish Office, but declined to accept a more promising position from an eligible young man. I asked her about Sara Kimberlin, and Cindy confirmed that Sara really was organizing the Olympic track and field events. She added that Mark Schuster was also over there preparing his son for a gold medal victory in the long jump. Cathy Fehrmann had married a veterinarian and owned a Morgan horse ranch somewhere in Missouri. Cindy hinted that Betty Kloss, instead of golfing with the other bank presidents, spent her afternoons trying to catch a 15 pound carp.

When we arrived in St. Louis, Cindy delivered me to somebody who could transport me to Highland. I soon recognized this good man to be Kris Jakel. Before we left the city however, Kris insisted that I go visit his personal CPA firm of Tschannen, Stratmann, and Potthast, Ltd. After a brief visit with these old chums, and their pretty secretary, Louise Thole, we were on our way to Highland, Kris mentioned that he owned his own freight airline, and that he was primarily occupied with the transportation of white elephants from Siam into the U.S. Yes, Bob Earnhart wound up in Siam as expected, and as far as I could discern, Greg Hebrank was helping Bob keep his servants in line.

I was briefly saddened by the unfortunate news that John Todt was in the hospital suffering from a severe case of something (which I understand to be related to the overconsumption of chicken heads) but as we arrived in his room, my thoughts were dissolved in one of those mind-boggling sweeps of chaos typical of a '76 celebration—and this was a typical celebration.

Jan Augustine was there, of course, to lead the merriment, and I heard her say that Patti Sparlin wanted to come, but couldn't get off work. Rich Kantner was there suspended from the ceiling, ready to play the part of the angel, if necessary. Dan Richter walked in with a paint brush and easel under his arms, and I quickly surmised that he was still designing album covers for only the most progressive groups.
Denise (Stallard) Zappia drove up in her old Falcon with Gail Holtgrave who is head of the accounting department at Basler's, announced that we should all come out to 1-270 bridge and watch her dive off.

Theresa and Kathleen Durbin were there—or was it Kathleen and Theresa? I saw Darby Gillham, who was still one cool guy, leaping over John's bed. Rick Von Hatten came in late. Nurse Joyce Lengermann came in John's room and was appalled to see the commotion going on. Sure that Dr. Tom Koch would not approve, she asked everyone to leave. I remained, and together Joyce and I went down to the coin cafe to have some cafe. The first thing Joyce did was to show me a copy of VOGUE Magazine—pointing out the new editors, Karen Johnson and Lynn Fuhler. She showed me one article in particular written by Penny Smal­ ing about Paris' hottest fashion coordinator, Terry Moenster. Joyce told me that Suzy Tim­ mermann now takes care of black eyes in Troy and that Ann Seitz is anything but a hotdog. Sue Geiger is still a farmer. Teresa Walter at last count had thirteen kids, and Pat Marti owns her own business. Joyce had to get back to work and I said I had to leave.

Passing John's door on the way out I found that the entire party had returned and was consuming a multitude of goodies brought in by Mary Schleper. Dan Lodes was entertaining John by trying to make his pet wombat stand on tis face while Gary Luber set up screen and projector to show a Monty Python flick. Richard Oriez tried to photograph the wombat as one hadn't been seen in this area for quite some time. The party began to get rowdy and Steve Kloss started butchering up the furniture. He still didn't have his head straight. Luckily Steve Knebel showed up and started to repair the damages. Hearing all the raucus, Joyce came in again and tried to break up the party. Finding it already too far out of hand, she called in/policepersons Deb Jacober and Jim Lange who ordered the party dissolved. Susan Hilden­ stein, District Court Judge, stepped in and pronounced such an order unconstitutional. I left with Deb Talleur who still works at the Farmers and Mer­ chants Bank, and went to Elaine Kampwerth's Campgrounds. Out there I also ran into Tom Dailer who still studies hard, but is in grave danger of running out of books. Tom was with Mark Wellen "wheelin" around in his custom-made vette, fully equipped with dual quads, mag wheels, and all chrome headers. Michelle Kolesa, seeking an artist's solitude at Elaine's, told us that our old friend Paula Noe was head nurse at Chastains.

After a short visit with Elaine, I traveled to the Holiday Inn in Edwardsville where Liz Hastings is a secretary. There I stayed and thought about those people I had seen and heard about all day. Neither head nor tail had been seen of Ann Wendler, but I figured no one could keep up with her since she always did have a head start on everybody. I knew Nancy Heimann was on a Uni­ versal tour—still as spaced out as ever. On these last few thoughts, I dozed off and the next day returned to join my man on the moon.

We may never pass this way again
Life--so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love--like the autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in over ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up,
We may never pass this way again

Dreams so they say
Are for fools and they let them drift away
Peace--like the silent dove
Should be flying but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open seas
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up
We may never pass this way again

So I wanna laugh while the laughing is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you
Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend
Like I'm in the journey and you're the journey's end
I may never pass this way
That's why I want it with you
We may never pass this way again
