DEDICATION

With gratitude and appreciation for your untiring efforts and limitless patience, we, the Class of '80, dedicate this yearbook to you, Sr. Sandra and Mrs. Yann.

It has been through your help and dedication that we can now look back upon our accomplishments and say "thank you" for helping to make our high school days happy, enjoyable, and worthwhile. We'll remember both of you always as friends as well as teachers.
And Last night I used 3 red pens ...

Now dears, let's begin.

Oh, you birds!!!!
Her More Serious Side
Dear Graduates of 1980,

Your days among us have come to an end. We have shared with you, as you have shared with us and each other. We hope to have enabled you to move on to the next stage in your life with firm faith, enthusiasm, and a sense of purpose. We are grateful for your presence.

As you leave us, we send you forth with St. Paul's words to the Ephesians:

We “have never stopped thanking God for you and recommending you in our prayer. May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, grant you a spirit of wisdom and insight to know him clearly. May he enlighten your inner-most vision that you may know the great hope to which he has called you, the wealth of his glorious heritage to be distributed among the members of the church, and the immeasurable scope of his power in us who believe.”

We hold you in our hearts and pray only for the best for each of you.

THREE ONE -ACT PLAYS

October 12 and 13 of 1979 marked a first at St. Paul High School — a fall drama production. Under the direction of Miss Jo Chapman and Mr. Harry Kumke, three one-act plays were presented. Many of those present for the plays, along with the performers, felt that it was a huge success and that the fall plays should become a St. Paul tradition.

“DECEMBER SONG”

CAST: Michelle Coleman, Denise Daiber, Chris Durbin, Deb Eilerman, Joe Eilerman, Jay Keeven, Linda Kumke, Mark Middeke, Larry Rakers.

Laura Stevens tries to make a point to her parents.
Michelle portrays Laura's mother.
Mark Middeke plays her younger brother.

While not bother Laura, he practices with his yo-yo.
Laura as a grown woman with children.
Laura's children talk about their mother's interesting life.
Joe reads his paper.

“BALCONY SCENE”

CAST: Anne Bjornson, Lloyd Bolick, Pat Jakel, Nancy Koerkenmeier, Jeff McDevitt, Mike Middeke, Barb Stabenow, Donna Talleur.

Lloyd and Donna portray a young man's nosy neighbors.
Jeff as the mysterious friend; Mike as the young man.
He tries to speak to her, but she cannot hear.
FOUR LITTLE WORDS

CAST: Marge Bjornson, Mike Bjornson, Kay Eilerman, Judy Gibbons, Chris Hogan, Kathy Kuhner, Terri Marti, Julie McDevitt, Janice Stabenow, Steve Stack, Tracy Thaxton, Nancy Thomas.

An actress auditions for Broadway producer Douglas Fidgett.

His secretary, Mrs. Crank, is not thrilled about her work.

Jan tries the subtle approach.

Oriole Bapp.

Gladwyn Bapp loves Mr. Fidgett's plan.

Mrs. Crank keeps the place tidy.

Poor Mr. Fidgett cannot take any more bad acting.

"We want a job!!"

A weepy actress.

"Look out, boss!!"

YUKKI
Sound crew · Dean Haukap and John Scott

Mrs. Laura Yann · makeup supervisor

Nancy and Barb act out a scene

And backstage, things were calm

Brian mans the spots

Stage fright? What's that?!

The Cast of "Four Little Words" takes one last bow.

Mrs. Crank gives her desk a cleaning.

Four unemployed actresses looking for work.

Mike, Julie, and Lloyd celebrate the end of it all . . .

And Beth, Jeff, and Brian, too.

And the cast party at Middeke's house was enjoyed by one and all.

At first, we weren't sure a fall play would work!

In fact, we were really scared to try it!!

But, we assured each other it would work . . .

... and we even made a few bets that it would.

... and it was a huge and smashing success!!
YEARBOOK STAFF

Thanks especially to Mary Ann Jakel, Karen Lankmann, Theresa Kuhl, Miss Chapman, Mrs. Yann, Mike Bjornson, Mark Egmon, and Deb Eilerman who stuck around to the very end to complete this book.

The 1980 baseball Vikings finished their season with an 11-24 record. The Vikes played both eventual 1980 State champions: Class A — Marquette (Alton) and Class AA — Collinsville.

The Vikes won their first regional game in quite a while with a dramatic come-from-behind 8-6 victory over Sandoval.

Leading hitter for the Vikes was Greg Hill batting .405. Tim Patek was leading home run hitter with 3 (all in one game) Pat Jakel drove in 21 runs, and Hill stole a school record of 28 bases followed by Marty Milkovich’s 26. Milkovich also led the team in hits with 30. As a team the Vikes stole 149 bases: a new school record, breaking last year’s mark of 98.
